S. 1630

To amend the National Labor Relations Act and the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947 to deter labor slowdowns at ports of the United States, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 18, 2015

Mr. RISCH introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To amend the National Labor Relations Act and the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947 to deter labor slowdowns at ports of the United States, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Preventing Labor
5 Union Slowdowns Act of 2015” or the “PLUS Act”.

1 SEC. 2. DETERRING LABOR SLOWDOWNS.

2 (a) AMENDMENTS TO THE NATIONAL LABOR RELA-
3 TIONS ACT.—The National Labor Relations Act is amend-4 ed—

5 (1) in section 1 (29 U.S.C. 151), by adding at 6 the end the following:

7 “International trade is one of the most impor-
8 tant components of the economy of the United 9 States and will likely continue to grow in the future.
10 In order to remain competitive in an increasingly 11 competitive global economy, it is essential that the 12 United States possess a highly efficient and reliable
13 public and private transportation network. The ports
14 of the United States are an increasingly important 15 part of such transportation network. Experience has 16 demonstrated that frequent and periodic disruptions
17 to commerce in the maritime industry in the form of 18 deliberate and unprotected labor slowdowns at the 19 ports of the United States have led to substantial
20 and frequent economic disruption and loss, inter-
21 fering with the free flow of domestic and inter-
22 national commerce and threatening the economic 23 health of the United States, as well as its citizens
24 and businesses. Such frequent and periodic disrup-
25 tions to commerce in the maritime industry hurt the 26 reputation of the United States in the global econ-

1 omy, cause the ports of the United States to lose
2 business, and represent a serious and burgeoning
3 threat to the financial health and economic stability
4 of the United States. It is hereby declared to be the 5 policy of the United States to eliminate the causes
6 and mitigate the effects of such disruptions to com-
7 merce in the maritime industry and to provide effec-
8 tive and prompt remedies to individuals injured by 9 such disruptions.”;

10 (2) in section 2 (29 U.S.C. 152), by adding at 11 the end the following:

12 “(15) The term ‘employee engaged in maritime 13 employment’ has the meaning given the term ‘em-
14 ployee’ in section 2(3) of the Longshore and Harbor
15 Workers’ Compensation Act (33 U.S.C. 902(3)).

16 “(16) The term ‘labor slowdown’—

17 “(A) includes any intentional effort by em-
18 ployees to reduce productivity or efficiency in 19 the performance of any duty of such employees;
20 and

21 “(B) does not include any such effort re-
22 quired by the good faith belief of such employ-
23 ees that an abnormally dangerous condition ex-
24 ists at the place of employment of such employ-
25 ees.”;

1 (3) in section 8(b) (29 U.S.C. 158(b)), by add-
2 ing at the end the following:

3 “(8) in representing, or seeking to represent,
4 employees engaged in maritime employment, to en-
5 gage in a labor slowdown at any time, including 6 when a collective-bargaining agreement is in effect.”;

7 (4) in section 9 (29 U.S.C. 159), by adding at 8 the end the following:

9 “(f) EFFECT OF LABOR SLOWDOWNS.—If a labor or-10 ganization has been found, pursuant to a final order of 11 the Board, to have violated section 8(b)(8), the Board 12 shall—

13 “(1) revoke the exclusive recognition or certifi-
14 cation of the labor organization, which shall imme-
15 diately cease to be entitled to represent the employ-
16 ees in the bargaining unit of such labor organiza-
17 tion; or

18 “(2) take other appropriate disciplinary ac-19 tion.”; and

20 (5) in section 10(l) (29 U.S.C. 160(l)), in the 21 first sentence, by striking “or section 8(b)(7)” and 22 inserting “or paragraph (7) or (8) of section 8(b)”.

23 (b) AMENDMENT TO THE LABOR MANAGEMENT RE-
24 LATIONS ACT, 1947.—Section 303 of the Labor Manage-
25 ment Relations Act, 1947 (29 U.S.C. 187) is amended—

1 (1) in subsection (a), by striking “in section
2 8(b)(4)” and inserting “under paragraph (4) or (8)
3 of section 8(b)”;

4 (2) in subsection (b), by inserting “, including
5 reasonable attorney fees for a violation under section
6 8(b)(8) of the National Labor Relations Act (29
7 U.S.C. 158(b)(8))” before the period; and

8 (3) by adding at the end the following:

9 “(c) In an action for damages resulting from a viola-
10 tion of section 8(b)(8) of the National Labor Relations 11 Act (29 U.S.C. 158(b)(8)), it shall not be a defense that 12 the injured party has, in any manner, waived, or pur-
13 ported to waive, the right of such party to pursue mone-
14 tary damages relating to the labor slowdown at issue—

15 “(1) in connection with a contractual grievance
16 alleging a violation of a clause prohibiting a strike,
17 or a similar clause, in a collective-bargaining agree-
18 ment; or

19 “(2) in connection with an action for a breach 20 of such a clause under section 301.”.
