^{111TH CONGRESS} 1ST SESSION S. 1756

To amend the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 to clarify the appropriate standard of proof.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

October 6, 2009

Mr. HARKIN (for himself, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. KOHL, Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. FRANKEN, Mr. SANDERS, Mr. BROWN, Mr. CARDIN, Mr. MERKLEY, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. DODD, Mrs. BOXER, Mr. LAUTEN-BERG, Mr. KAUFMAN, and Mr. NELSON of Florida) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To amend the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 to clarify the appropriate standard of proof.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Protecting Older

5 Workers Against Discrimination Act".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In enacting the Age Discrimination in Em ployment Act of 1967, Congress intended to elimi nate discrimination against individuals in the work place based on age.

(2) In passing the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Congress correctly recognized that unlawful discrimination is often difficult to detect and prove because discriminators do not usually admit their discrimination and often try to conceal their true motives.

10 (3) Congress has relied on a long line of court 11 cases holding that language in the Age Discrimina-12 tion in Employment Act of 1967, and similar anti-13 discrimination and antiretaliation laws, that is near-14 ly identical to language in title VII of the Civil 15 Rights Act of 1964 would be interpreted consistently 16 with judicial interpretations of title VII of the Civil 17 Rights Act of 1964, including amendments made by 18 the Civil Rights Act of 1991. The Supreme Court's 19 decision in Gross v. FBL Financial Services, Inc., 20 129 S. Ct. 2343 (2009), has eroded this long-held 21 understanding of consistent interpretation and cir-22 cumvented well-established precedents.

(4) The holding of the Supreme Court in Gross,
by requiring proof that age was the "but for" cause of employment discrimination, has narrowed the

 $\mathbf{2}$

scope of protection intended to be afforded by the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, thus eliminating protection for many individuals whom Congress intended to protect.

5 (5) The Supreme Court's holding in Gross, rely6 ing on misconceptions about the Age Discrimination
7 in Employment Act of 1967 articulated in prior de8 cisions of the Court, has significantly narrowed the 9 broad scope of the protections of the Age Discrimi10 nation in Employment Act of 1967.

(6) Unless Congress takes action, victims of age discrimination will find it unduly difficult to prove their claims and victims of other types of discrimination may find their rights and remedies uncertain and unpredictable.

16 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to ensure that the standard for proving unlawful disparate treat-17 ment under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act 18 19 of 1967 and other anti-discrimination and anti-retaliation 20 laws is no different than the standard for making such 21 a proof under title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 22 including amendments made by the Civil Rights Act of 23 1991.

1 SEC. 3. STANDARD OF PROOF.

2 Section 4 of the Age Discrimination in Employment
3 Act of 1967 (29 U.S.C. 623) is amended by adding after 4 subsection (f) the following:

(g)(1) For any claim brought under this Act or any 5 other authority described in paragraph (5), a plaintiff es-6 7 tablishes an unlawful employment practice if the plaintiff 8 demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that— 9 "(A) an impermissible factor under that Act or 10 authority was a motivating factor for the practice 11 complained of, even if other factors also motivated 12 that practice; or

13 "(B) the practice complained of would not have 14 occurred in the absence of an impermissible factor. 15 "(2) On a claim in which a plaintiff demonstrates a 16 violation under paragraph (1)(A) and a defendant dem-17 onstrates that the defendant would have taken the same 18 action in the absence of the impermissible motivating fac-19 tor, the court—

"(A) may grant declaratory relief, injunctive relief (except as provided in subparagraph (B)), and attorney's fees and costs demonstrated to be directly attributable only to the pursuit of a claim under paragraph (1); and 4

"(B) shall not award damages or issue an order
 requiring any admission, reinstatement, hiring, pro motion, or payment.

4 "(3) In making the demonstration required by para5 graph (1), a plaintiff may rely on any type or form of 6 admissible circumstantial or direct evidence and need only
7 produce evidence sufficient for a reasonable trier of fact
8 to conclude that a violation described in subparagraph (A)
9 or (B) of paragraph (1) occurred.

"(4) Every method for proving either such violation, including using the evidentiary framework set forth in McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973)
shall be available to the plaintiff.

14 "(5) Except as provided in paragraph (6), this sub-15 section shall apply to any claim that the practice com-16 plained of was motivated by a reason that is impermis-17 sible, with regard to that practice, under—

18 "(A) this Act, including subsection (d);

19 "(B) any Federal law forbidding employment20 discrimination;

"(C) any law forbidding discrimination of the type described in subsection (d) or forbidding other retaliation against an individual for engaging in, or interference with, any federally protected activity in-

1	cluding the exercise of any right established by Fed-
2	eral law (including a whistleblower law); or
3	"(D) any provision of the Constitution that pro-
4	tects against discrimination or retaliation.
5	"(6) This subsection shall not apply to a claim under
6	a law described in paragraph $(5)(C)$ to the extent such
7	law has an express provision regarding a legal burden of
8	proof applicable to that claim.
9	((7) In any proceeding, with respect to a claim de-
10	scribed in paragraph (5), the plaintiff need not plead the
11	existence of this subsection.
12	"(8) In this subsection, the term 'demonstrates'
13	means meet the burdens of production and persuasion.".
14	SEC. 4. APPLICATION.
15	This Act, and the amendments made by this Act,

This Act, and the amendments made by this Act, shall apply to all claims described in section 4(g)(5) of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (29)
U.S.C. 623(g)(5)) pending on or after June 17, 2009.
