To amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require the Securities and Exchange Commission to require the contractual provision by large issuers of procedural privileges with respect to certain shareholder claims relating to board and management accountability for “woke” social policy actions as a condition of listing on a national securities exchange, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 23, 2021

Mr. RUBIO introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require the Securities and Exchange Commission to require the contractual provision by large issuers of procedural privileges with respect to certain shareholder claims relating to board and management accountability for “woke” social policy actions as a condition of listing on a national securities exchange, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Mind Your Own Busi-
3 ness Act of 2021”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The fiduciary duties of boards of directors 7 and other corporate actors to corporations and their 8 stockholders are generally established by and en-9 forceable under State law.

10 (2) State law generally permits corporations 11 discretion with respect to altering the rights of 12 stockholders, including the process by which stock-
13 holders assert claims for breach of fiduciary duties 14 by the board of directors or other corporate actors, 15 limited by State law governing these fiduciary du-16 ties.

17 (3) The regulation of corporations as issuers of 18 securities authorized by Congress in the Securities
19 Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) gen-
20 erally regulates corporate behavior in connection 21 with the issuance of securities, including with re-22 spect to contractual arrangements between corpora-
23 tions and their stockholders via provisions in cor-24 porations’ charters and bylaws, and does not—

25 (A) establish fiduciary duties of boards of 26 directors or other corporate actors to corpora-

1 tions and their stockholders under Federal law; 2 or

3 (B) regulate the fiduciary duties of boards
4 of directors or other corporate actors to cor-
5 porations and their stockholders under State 6 law.

7 (4) The State law fiduciary duties of boards of 8 directors and other corporate actors establish certain 9 norms upon which the national market system for 10 securities has historically relied, including—

11 (A) boards of directors and other corporate 12 actors generally have fiduciary duties to their 13 respective corporations and stockholders; and 14 (B) the behavior of corporations as issuers

15 of securities will generally conform to these fi-
16 duciary duties, to the benefit of the protection 17 of investors and the public interest.

18 (5) Other norms related to the public interest 19 have historically provided critical bases upon which 20 the national market system for securities has histori-21 cally relied, including norms that large corporate 22 issuers that are significant to the national econ-
23 omy—

24 (A) generally invest corporate resources to 25 increase the long-term value of the corporation

1 as a business rather than as an agent of social 2 change;

3 (B) do not use corporate resources to ad-
4 vance narrowly political or partisan agendas; 5 and

6 (C) do not use corporate resources to pro-7 mote socialism, Marxism, critical race theory, or 8 other un-American ideologies among their 9 workforces or customers.

10 (6) Though these norms are not enforceable
11 legal duties of boards of directors or other corporate 12 actors under Federal law, they substantially con-
13 tribute to the commercial purpose and nationwide
14 availability of the national market system for securi-
15 ties, which are recognized by section 2 of the Securi-
16 ties Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78b) as prin-
17 cipal bases for the regulation authorized by that Act.

18 (7) Certain large corporate issuers that are sig-
19 nificant to the national economy have recently un-20 dertaken actions which facially violate these norms 21 on account of apparent political bias. Examples of 22 such actions include the use of corporate resources 23 to—

24 (A) deny goods and services to States and 25 their political subdivisions, and private entities

1 within such States and their political subdivi-2 sions, in response to the social policies proposed 3 or enacted in such States and their political 4 subdivisions, including those related to election
5 procedures, restrictions on abortion, protections
6 for religious freedom, and enforcement of immi-
7 gration law;

8 (B) deny goods and services to industries 9 and other classes of entities on the basis of 10 characteristics of those industries and classes 11 related to social policy, including industries in-12 volved in the sale or manufacture of firearms, 13 operation of border security or criminal deten-14 tion facilities, and performance of services for 15 the United States military, and classes of enti-
16 ties based on religious belief or identity;

17 (C) promote race and sex stereotyping,
18 such as those described in section 2(a) of Exec-19 utive Order 13950 (5 U.S.C. 4103 note; relat-20 ing to combating race and sex stereotyping), 21 which include such destructive concepts that the 22 United States is fundamentally racist or sexist, 23 an individual should be discriminated against or 24 receive adverse treatment solely or partly be-25 cause of his or her race or sex, and meritocracy

1 or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist
2 or sexist, or were created by a particular race 3 to oppress another race; and

4 (D) openly coordinate with political actors
5 to pursue such actions, including—

6 (i) undertaking such actions upon the 7 action (or inaction) of boards of directors 8 and other corporate actors that are not 9 sufficiently independent from conflicts of 10 interest with political actors, including 11 elected officials, political parties, news
12 media, labor unions, nonprofit or non-gov-13 ernmental organizations which advocate for 14 changes political or social policy through 15 issuers, other activists affiliated with such 16 actors, and activist investors which advo-
17 cate for changes in corporate policy pri-
18 marily unrelated to the pecuniary interest 19 of the issuer; and

20 (ii) conceding to the demands of such 21 political actors without undertaking due 22 care.

23 (8) The prominent, open, and public facial vio-
24 lation of these norms by large corporate issuers that 25 are significant to the national economy undermine

1 the commercial purpose and nationwide availability 2 of the national market system for securities by 3 spending corporate resources on non-commercial and 4 divisive, political and partisan causes.

5 (9) The threat these actions pose to the na-
6 tional market system for securities establishes a 7 public interest in ensuring large corporate issuers
8 that are significant to the national economy—

9 (A) have adequate internal procedural 10 mechanisms to ensure the accountability of 11 boards of directors and other corporate actors
12 with respect to their adherence with the norms 13 described in this section; and 14 (B) do not unduly burden the ability of 15 stockholders to assert claims for breach of fidu-16 ciary duty under State law where the actions at 17 issue in such claims facially violates those 18 norms.

19 SEC. 3. LISTING REQUIREMENT RELATING TO PROCE-

22 The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a

14 “(A) the morale of, or ability of the issuer
15 to hire or retain, supervisory employees in gen-16 eral;

17 “(B) the diversity of the board of direc-

3 to the extent the pecuniary benefit of or to such 4 benefit or reduction in cost is caused by the—

5 “(i) investment in the securities of the 6 issuer by a non-pecuniary investment enti-
7 ty; or

8 “(ii) inclusion of the securities of the 9 issuer in indexes created by index pro-
10 viders that select those indexes on a pri-
11 marily non-pecuniary basis or that include 12 such securities in any index on a primarily 13 non-pecuniary basis.

14 “(2) DEMAND EXCUSED.—For the purpose of 15 determining whether demand is excused with respect 16 to a covered claim, there shall be a presumption that 17 a director is not independent if the director is em-18 ployed, controlled, or nominated by, or otherwise has 19 a history of affiliation with a non-pecuniary invest-20 ment entity or any affiliate of a non-pecuniary in-21 vestment entity.

22 “(d) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 23 section may be construed—

24 “(1) to limit the exercise of religion, as defined 25 in section 5 of the Religious Freedom Restoration

1 Act of 1993 (42 U.S.C. 2000bb-2) of any issuer or 2 any director, officer, or affiliate of an issuer; or 3 “(2) as establishing a fiduciary duty by any 4 corporate defendant or corporate actor.”.
