

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 296

To limit funding for the World Health Organization, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 8, 2021

Mr. SCOTT of Florida (for himself and Mr. HAWLEY) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To limit funding for the World Health Organization, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “World Health Organi-
5 zation Accountability Act of 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDING.

7 Congress finds that, in response to the World Health
8 Organization’s denial that Taiwan ever alerted the organi-
9 zation to the possibility of human-to-human transmission
10 of COVID–19, the Central Epidemic Command Center
11 made the following statement on April 11, 2020:

1 “(1) The Taiwan Centers for Disease Control
2 (Taiwan CDC) learned from online sources that 3 there had been at least seven cases of atypical pneu-
4 monia in Wuhan, China. In China, the term ‘atypi-
5 cal pneumonia’ is commonly used to refer to SARS, 6 a disease transmitted between humans caused by 7 coronavirus.

8 “(2) Owing to its experience with the SARS
9 epidemic in 2003, Taiwan vigilantly kept track of in-10 formation about the new outbreak. On December 31,
11 2019, Taiwan sent an email to the International 12 Health Regulations (IHR) focal point under the 13 World Health Organization (WHO), informing 14 WHO of its understanding of the disease and also 15 requesting further information from WHO. Given 16 the lack of clarity at the time, as well as the many 17 rumors that were circulating, Taiwan’s aim was to 18 ensure that all relevant parties remained alert, espe-
19 cially since the outbreak occurred just before the 20 Lunar New Year holiday, which typically sees tre-
21 mendous amounts of travel. To be prudent, in the 22 email we took pains to refer to atypical pneumonia,
23 and specifically noted that patients had been isolated 24 for treatment. Public health professionals could dis-
25 cern from this wording that there was a real possi-

1 bility of human-to-human transmission of the dis-
2 ease. However, because at the time there were as yet
3 no cases of the disease in Taiwan, we could not state 4 directly and conclusively that there had been human-5 to-human transmission.

6 “(3) The Taiwan CDC also contacted the Chi-
7 nese Center for Disease Control and Prevention in 8 a bid to obtain more information. However, in re-
9 sponse to our inquiries, the WHO IHR focal point
10 only responded with a short message stating that 11 Taiwan’s information had been forwarded to expert
12 colleagues; China provided only a press release.

13 “(4) Even though Taiwan strongly suspected
14 that human-to-human transmission of the disease 15 was already occurring at the time, we were unable 16 to gain confirmation through existing channels.
17 Therefore, on the day the aforementioned email was 18 sent to WHO, the Taiwan government activated en-
19 hanced border control and quarantine measures 20 based on the assumption that human-to-human 21 transmission was in fact occurring. These measures 22 included screening passengers on flights from 23 Wuhan prior to disembarkation.

24 “(5) In mid-January, the Taiwan CDC dis-
25 patched experts to Wuhan to gain a better under-

1 standing of the epidemic, the control measures taken
 2 there, and patients' exposure history. Based on pre-
 3 liminary research, Taiwan determined that this form 4 of pneumonia could indeed spread via human-to-5 human transmission.”.
