

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 333

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide for extensions of detention of certain aliens ordered removed, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Mrs. BRITT (for herself, Mr. BARRASSO, Mr. BRAUN, Mr. CASSIDY, Mr. COTTON, Mr. CRAMER, Mr. CRAPO, Mr. CRUZ, Mrs. FISCHER, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. HOEVEN, Mrs. HYDE-SMITH, Mr. MULLIN, Mr. RISCH, Mr. ROUNDS, Mr. RUBIO, Mr. SCHMITT, Mr. THUNE, Mr. TILLIS, Mr. TUBERVILLE, and Mr. BOOZMAN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide for extensions of detention of certain aliens ordered removed, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Keep Our Commu-5 nities Safe Act of 2023”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7       It is the sense of Congress that—

- 1                         (1) rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the 2                         United States should be upheld and protected;
3                         (2) Congress intends to uphold the constitu-4                         tional principle of due process of law; and 5                         (3) due process of law is a right afforded to 6                         every person in the United States.

7                     SEC. 3. DETENTION OF DANGEROUS ALIENS DURING RE- 8                     MOVAL PROCEEDINGS.

- 9                     Section 236 of the Immigration and Nationality Act 10                    (8 U.S.C. 1226) is amended—
11                         (1) by striking “Attorney General” each place 12                         such term appears and inserting “Secretary of 13                         Homeland Security”; 14                         (2) in subsection (a)—
15                             (A) in the matter preceding paragraph (1), 16                             by inserting “or the Attorney General” before 17                             the em dash;
18                             (B) in paragraph (1), by striking “and” at 19                             the end; and 20                             (C) in paragraph (2)(B), by striking “con-21                             ditional parole; but” and inserting “recog-22                             nizance; and”;
23                         (3) in subsection (b)—

1                             (A) in the subsection heading, by striking
2                             “PAROLE” and inserting “RECOGNIZANCE”; 3                             and

4                             (B) by striking “parole” and inserting “re-5                             cognition”;

6                             (4) in subsection (c)(1), by striking the undes-7                             ignated matter following subparagraph (D) and in-8                             serting the following:

9                             “any time after the alien is released, without regard 10                             to whether an alien is released related to any activ-11                             ity, offense, or conviction described in this para-12                             graph; to whether the alien is released on parole, su-13                             pervised release, or probation; or to whether the 14                             alien may be arrested or imprisoned again for the 15                             same offense. If the activity described in this para-16                             graph does not result in the alien being taken into 17                             custody by any person other than the Secretary, 18                             when the alien is brought to the attention of the 19                             Secretary or when the Secretary determines it is 20                             practical to take such alien into custody, the Sec-21                             retary shall take such alien into custody.”;

22                             (5) in subsection (e), by striking “Attorney 23                             General’s” and inserting “Secretary of Homeland 24                             Security’s”; and 25                             (6) by adding at the end the following:

1       “(f) LENGTH OF DETENTION.—Notwithstanding any 2 other provision under this section, an alien may be de-3 tained under this section for any period, without limita-
4 tion, except as provided in subsection (h), until the alien 5 is subject to a final order of removal. The length of deten-6 tion under this section shall not affect a detention under 7 section 241.

8       “(g) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.—

9           “(1) LIMITATION.—The Attorney General’s re-
10 view of the Secretary of Homeland Security’s cus-11 tody determinations under subsection (a) shall be 12 limited to whether the alien may be detained, re-13 leased on bond (of at least $1,500 with security ap-14 proved by the Secretary), or released with no bond.
15 Any review involving an alien described in paragraph 16 (2)(D) shall be limited to a determination of whether 17 the alien is properly included in such category.

18           “(2) CLASSES OF ALIENS.—The Attorney Gen-
19 eral shall review the Secretary’s custody determina-20 tions for—

21              “(A) aliens in exclusion proceedings;
22              “(B) aliens described in section 212(a)(3)
23 or 237(a)(4);
24              “(C) aliens described in subsection (c); and

1                 “(D) aliens in deportation proceedings 2                 under section 242(a)(2) (as in effect between 3                 April 24, 1996, and April 1, 1997).

4         “(h) RELEASE ON BOND.—

5                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—An alien detained pursuant 6                 to subsection (a) may seek release on bond. No bond 7                 may be granted under this subsection unless the 8                 alien establishes, by clear and convincing evidence, 9                 that the alien is not a flight risk or a risk to another 10                 person or the community.

11                 “(2) CERTAIN ALIENS INELIGIBLE.—No alien 12                 detained pursuant to subsection (c) may seek release 13                 on bond under this subsection.”.

14 SEC. 4. ALIENS ORDERED REMOVED.

15                 Section 241(a) of the Immigration and Nationality
16 Act (8 U.S.C. 1231(a)) is amended—

17                 (1) by striking “Attorney General” each place
18                 such term appears (except for the first place it ap-19                 pears in paragraph (4)(B)(i)) and inserting “Sec-20                 retary of Homeland Security”;

21                 (2) in paragraph (1)—

22                         (A) by striking subparagraphs (B) and (C) 23                 and inserting the following:

24                 “(B) BEGINNING OF PERIOD.—The re-25                 moval period begins on the latest of—

1                 “(i) the date on which the order of re-
2                 moval becomes administratively final;

3                 “(ii) the date on which the alien is 4                 taken into such custody if the alien is not 5                 in the custody of the Secretary on the date
6                 on which the order of removal becomes ad-7                 ministratively final; and 8                 “(iii) the date on which the alien is 9                 taken into the custody of the Secretary 10                 after the alien is released from detention 11                 or confinement if the alien is detained or 12                 confined (except for an immigration proc-13                 ess) on the date on which the order of re-

14                 moval becomes administratively final.

15                 “(C) SUSPENSION OF PERIOD.—

16                 “(i) EXTENSION.—The removal period 17                 shall be extended beyond 90 days and the 18                 Secretary may, in the Secretary’s sole dis-19                 cretion, keep the alien in detention during 20                 such extended period, if—

21                 “(I) the alien fails or refuses to 22                 make all reasonable efforts to comply 23                 with the removal order, or to fully co-24                 operate with the Secretary’s efforts to 25                 establish the alien’s identity and carry

1                   out the removal order, including making timely application in good faith
2                   for travel or other documents necessary to the alien's departure or conspires or acts to prevent the alien's 3                   removal that is subject to an order of removal;

8                   “(II) a court, the Board of Immigration Appeals, or an immigration 9                   judge orders a stay of removal of an alien who is subject to an administratively final order of removal;

10                  “(III) the Secretary transfers custody of the alien pursuant to law 11                  to another Federal agency or a State or local government agency in connection with the official duties of such 12                  agency; or

15                  “(IV) a court or the Board of Immigration Appeals orders a remand to an immigration judge or the Board of Immigration Appeals, during the time period when the case is pending a decision on remand (with the removal period beginning anew on the 16
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25 date that the alien is ordered removed on remand).

7                             “(I) the alien makes all reason-
8                             able efforts to comply with the re-9                             moval order, or to fully cooperate with 10                           the Secretary’s efforts to establish the 11                           alien’s identity and carry out the re-
12                           moval order;

15                             “(III) the alien is returned to the 16                             custody of the Secretary.

23                             “(iv) SOLE FORM OF RELIEF.—An 24                             alien may only seek relief from detention 25                             under this subparagraph by filing an appli-

1 cation for a writ of habeas corpus in ac-
2 cordance with chapter 153 of title 28,
3 United States Code. No alien whose period
4 of detention is extended under this sub-
5 paragraph shall have the right to seek re-6 lease on bond.”;

7 (3) in paragraph (3)—

8 (A) in the matter preceding subparagraph 9 (A), by inserting “or is not detained pursuant 10 to paragraph (6)” after “the removal period”; 11 and

12 (B) by amending subparagraph (D) to 13 read as follows:

14 “(D) to obey reasonable restrictions on the 15 alien’s conduct or activities that the Secretary 16 prescribes for the alien—

17 “(i) to prevent the alien from ab-
18 sconding;

19 “(ii) for the protection of the commu-
20 nity; or

21 “(iii) for other purposes related to the 22 enforcement of Federal immigration 23 laws.”;

24 (4) in paragraph (4)(A), by striking “paragraph 25 (2)” and inserting “subparagraph (B)”; and

1                             (5) by amending paragraph (6) to read as fol-2                             lows:

3                             “(6) ADDITIONAL RULES FOR DETENTION OR 4                             RELEASE OF CERTAIN ALIENS.—

5                             “(A) DETENTION REVIEW PROCESS FOR 6                             COOPERATIVE ALIENS ESTABLISHED.—

7                             “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of 8                             Homeland Security shall establish an ad-9                             ministrative review process to determine 10                            whether an alien who is not otherwise sub-11                            ject to mandatory detention, who has made 12                            all reasonable efforts to comply with a re-13                            moval order and to cooperate fully with the 14                            Secretary’s efforts to establish the alien’s 15                            identity and carry out the removal order, 16                            including making timely application in 17                            good faith for travel or other documents 18                            necessary to the alien’s departure, and who 19                            has not conspired or acted to prevent re-20                            moval should be detained or released on 21                            conditions.

22                             “(ii) DETERMINATION.—The Sec-
23                             retary of Homeland Security shall make a 24                             determination whether to release an alien

1 after the removal period in accordance with 2 subparagraph (B), which—

3                 “(I) shall include consideration of 4                 any evidence submitted by the alien;
5                 and

6                 “(II) may include consideration 7                 of any other evidence, including—

8                         “(aa) any information or as-9                 sistance provided by the Sec-10                 retary of State or other Federal 11                 official; and 12                 “(bb) any other information

13                 available to the Secretary of 14                 Homeland Security pertaining to 15                 the ability to remove the alien.

16                 “(B) AUTHORITY TO DETAIN BEYOND RE-
17                 MOVAL PERIOD.—

18                 “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of 19                 Homeland Security may continue to detain 20                 an alien for 90 days beyond the removal 21                 period (including any extension of the re-22                 moval period under paragraph (1)(C)). An 23                 alien whose detention is extended under 24                 this subparagraph shall not have the right
25                 to seek release on bond.

1                     “(ii) SPECIFIC CIRCUMSTANCES.—The 2                     Secretary of Homeland Security may con-
3                     tinue to detain an alien beyond the 90 4                     days authorized under clause (i)—

5                         “(I) until the alien is removed, if 6                     the Secretary determines that there is 7                     a significant likelihood that the 8                     alien—

9                         “(aa) will be removed in the 10                     reasonably foreseeable future;

11                         “(bb) would be removed in 12                     the reasonably foreseeable future;

13                         or

14                         “(cc) would have been re-15                     moved if the alien had not—

16                         “(AA) failed or refused 17                     to make all reasonable ef-
18                     forts to comply with the re-
19                     moval order;

20                         “(BB) failed or refused 21                     to cooperate fully with the 22                     Secretary’s efforts to estab-
23                     lish the alien’s identity and 24                     carry out the removal order, 25                     including making timely ap-

1 plication in good faith for 2 travel or other documents
3 necessary to the alien's de-
4 parture; or 5 “(CC) conspired or 6 acted to prevent removal;
7 “(II) until the alien is removed,
8 if the Secretary of Homeland Security
9 certifies in writing—
10 “(aa) in consultation with 11 the Secretary of Health and 12 Human Services, that the alien
13 has a highly contagious disease
14 that poses a threat to public safe-
15 ty;
16 “(bb) after receipt of a writ-17 ten recommendation from the 18 Secretary of State, that release
19 of the alien is likely to have seri-
20 ous adverse foreign policy con-
21 sequences for the United States;
22 “(cc) based on information
23 available to the Secretary of 24 Homeland Security (including 25 classified, sensitive, or national

1 security information, and without 2 regard to the grounds upon
3 which the alien was ordered re-4 moved), that there is reason to 5 believe that the release of the 6 alien would threaten the national 7 security of the United States;

8 “(dd) that the release of the 9 alien will threaten the safety of 10 the community or any person,
11 conditions of release cannot rea-
12 sonably be expected to ensure the 13 safety of the community or of 14 any person;

15 “(ee) the alien has been con-
16 victed of 1 or more aggravated
17 felonies (as defined in section 18 101(a)(43)(A)) or of 1 or more
19 crimes identified by the Secretary
20 of Homeland Security by regula-21 tion, or of 1 or more attempts or 22 conspiracies to commit any such 23 aggravated felonies or such iden-
24 tified crimes, if the aggregate 25 term of imprisonment for such

1                   attempts or conspiracies is at 2                   least 5 years; or

3                   “(ff) the alien has com-
4                   mitted 1 or more crimes of vio-5                   lence (as defined in section 16 of 6                   title 18, United States Code, but 7                   not including a purely political 8                   offense) and, because of a mental 9                   condition or personality disorder 10                  and behavior associated with that 11                  condition or disorder, the alien is 12                  likely to engage in acts of vio-13                  lence in the future; or

14                  “(III) pending a certification
15                  under subclause (II), if the Secretary
16                  of Homeland Security has initiated 17                  the administrative review process not 18                  later than 30 days after the expiration 19                  of the removal period (including any 20                  extension of the removal period under 21                  paragraph (1)(C)).

22                  “(iii) NO RIGHT TO BOND HEARING.— 23                  An alien whose detention is extended under 24                  this subparagraph shall not have a right to

1 seek release on bond, including by reason
2 of a certification under clause (ii)(II).

3 “(C) RENEWAL AND DELEGATION OF CER-
4 TIFICATION.—

5 “(i) RENEWAL.—The Secretary of 6 Homeland Security may renew a certifi-
7 cation under subparagraph (B)(ii)(II)
8 every 6 months after providing an oppor-
9 tunity for the alien to request reconsider-
10 ation of the certification and to submit 11 documents or other evidence in support of 12 that request. If the Secretary does not 13 renew a certification, the Secretary may 14 not continue to detain the alien under sub-15 paragraph (B)(ii)(II).

16 “(ii) DELEGATION.—Notwithstanding
17 section 103, the Secretary of Homeland
18 Security may not delegate the authority to 19 make or renew a certification described in 20 item (bb), (cc), or (dd) of subparagraph
21 (B)(ii)(II) below the level of the Assistant 22 Secretary for Immigration and Customs
23 Enforcement.

24 “(iii) HEARING.—The Secretary of 25 Homeland Security may request that the

1           Attorney General or the Attorney General's 2           designee provide for a hearing to make the 3           determination described in subparagraph
4           (B)(ii)(II)(dd)(BB).

5           “(D) RELEASE ON CONDITIONS.—If it is 6           determined that an alien should be released 7           from detention by a Federal court, the Board of 8           Immigration Appeals, or if an immigration 9           judge orders a stay of removal, the Secretary of 10          Homeland Security may impose conditions on 11          release as provided under paragraph (3).

12          “(E) REDETENTION.—

13           “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of 14           Homeland Security, without any limita-
15           tions other than those specified in this sec-
16           tion, may detain any alien subject to a 17           final removal order who is released from 18           custody if—

19               “(I) removal becomes likely in 20               the reasonably foreseeable future;

21               “(II) the alien fails to comply 22               with the conditions of release or to 23               continue to satisfy the conditions de-24               scribed in subparagraph (A); or

1                         “(III) upon reconsideration, the 2                         Secretary determines that the alien
3                         can be detained under subparagraph
4                         (B).

5                         “(ii) APPLICABILITY.—This section 6                         shall apply to any alien returned to cus-7                         tody pursuant to this subparagraph as if 8                         the removal period terminated on the day 9                         of the redetention.

10                         “(F) REVIEW OF DETERMINATIONS BY 11                         SECRETARY.—A determination by the Secretary 12                         under this paragraph shall not be subject to re-13                         view by any other agency.”.

14 SEC. 5. CRIME OF VIOLENCE DEFINED.

15                         Section 16(b) of title 18, United States Code, is 16 amended—

17                         (1) by striking “by its nature, involves” and in-18                         serting “based on the facts of the offense, involved”; 19                         and

20                         (2) by striking “may be used” and inserting 21                         “may have been used”.

22 SEC. 6. SEVERABILITY.

23                         If any of the provisions of this Act, any amendment 24                         made by this Act, or the application of any such provision 25                         to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid for

1 any reason, the remainder of this Act, the amendments
2 made by this Act, and the application of the provisions
3 and amendments made by this Act to any other person 4 or circumstance shall not be affected by such holding.

5 SEC. 7. EFFECTIVE DATES.

6 (a) APPREHENSION AND DETENTION OF ALIENS.—
7 The amendments made by section 3 shall take effect on 8 the date of the enactment of this Act. Section 236 of the 9 Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended by section 10 3, shall apply to any alien in detention under the provi-
11 sions of such section on or after such date of enactment.

12 (b) ALIENS ORDERED REMOVED.—The amendments
13 made by section 4 shall take effect on the date of the en-14 actment of this Act. Section 241 of the Immigration and 15 Nationality Act, as amended by section 4, shall apply to—

16 (1) all aliens subject to a final administrative 17 removal, deportation, or exclusion order that was 18 issued before, on, or after the date of the enactment 19 of this Act; and

20 (2) acts and conditions occurring or existing be-21 fore, on, or after such date of enactment.
