A BILL

To authorize the Secretary of Commerce to establish a Resilient Communities Program to provide communities impacted by trade with grants for economic development, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Resilient Communities 5 Act of 2023”.

6 SEC. 2. RESILIENT COMMUNITIES PROGRAM.

7       (a) AWARD OF GRANTS.—The Secretary of Com-
8 merce shall establish a program to be known as the Resil-

1 ient Communities Program under which the Secretary
2 may award grants to eligible recipients representing af-
3 fected communities—

4 (1) to encourage the continued production of 5 certain goods in those communities, including the 6 employment of individuals involved in the production 7 of those goods; or

8 (2) for the conduct of economic development in 9 those communities.

10 (b) USES OF FUNDS.—

11 (1) SUBSEQUENT GRANTS.—An eligible recipi-
12 ent awarded a grant under subsection (a) may use 13 the amount of the grant to award subsequent grants
14 to covered domestic producers in affected commu-
15 nities.

16 (2) PRIORITY.—An eligible recipient in an af-
17 fected community shall prioritize the award of subse-
18 quent grants under paragraph (1) to covered domes-19 tic producers that are determined by the eligible re-20 cipient to be most likely to increase production and 21 employment at a facility of the covered domestic pro-
22 ducer located within the affected community as a re-23 sult of the grant provided.

24 (3) ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.—If there is no
25 covered domestic producer in an affected community,

1       an eligible recipient representing that community
2       that is in receipt of a grant under subsection (a) 3       shall use the amounts awarded under that grant for 4       economic development within that community.

5       (c) RESILIENT COMMUNITIES FUND.—

6           (1) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established in 7       the Treasury of the United States a trust fund (to 8       be known as the “Resilient Communities Fund”), 9       consisting of—

10              (A) amounts transferred to the trust fund 11       under paragraph (2); and 12              (B) any amounts that may be credited to 13       the trust fund under paragraph (3).

14       (2) TRANSFER OF AMOUNTS.—

15              (A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the 16       Treasury shall transfer to the trust fund estab-
17       lished under paragraph (1), from the general 18       fund of the Treasury, for fiscal year 2024 and 19       each fiscal year thereafter, an amount equiva-
20       lent to the amount received into the general 21       fund during that fiscal year and attributable to 22       duties collected pursuant to an antidumping or 23       countervailing duty order under title VII of the 24       Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671 et seq.).

1                          (B) FREQUENCY OF TRANSFERS.—The 2                          Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer 3                          amounts required by subparagraph (A) to be 4                          transferred to the trust fund established under 5                          paragraph (1) not less frequently than quar-6                          terly.

7                          (3) INVESTMENT OF AMOUNTS.—

8                          (A) INVESTMENT OF AMOUNTS.—The Sec-
9                          retary of the Treasury shall invest such portion 10                         of the trust fund established under paragraph 11                         (1) as is not required to meet current with-12                         drawals in interest-bearing obligations of the 13                         United States or in obligations guaranteed as to 14                         both principal and interest by the United 15                         States.

16                         (B) INTEREST AND PROCEEDS.—The in-17                         terest on, and the proceeds from the sale or re-18                         demption of, any obligations held in the trust 19                         fund established under paragraph (1) shall be 20                         credited to and form a part of the trust fund.

21                         (4) AVAILABILITY OF AMOUNTS IN TRUST
22                         FUND.—Amounts in the trust fund established 23                         under paragraph (1) shall be available to the Sec-24                         retary of Commerce, as provided in advance in an

1       appropriations Act, to award grants to eligible re-2       cipients under subsection (a).

3       (d) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

4           (1) AFFECTED COMMUNITY.—The term “af-5       fected community” means an area in which a domes-6       tic producer or worker located in that area has expe-
7       rienced an injury from trade.

11       following:

12              (A) A significant idling of production fa-13       cilities, plant closings, or underutilization of 14       productive capacity of the producer.

15              (B) The inability of the producer to carry 16       out production operations in the United States
17       at a reasonable level of profit.

18              (C) A decline in sales or market share, 19       higher or growing inventory, or a downward
20       trend in production, profits, wages, produc-
21       tivity, or employment of the producer.

22              (D) Difficulty of the producer in gener-
23       ating adequate capital to finance the mod-24       ernization of plants, property, or equipment in 25       the United States.

1                         (E) The inability of the producer to main-2                         tain existing levels for research and develop-3                         ment.

4                         (3) DOMESTIC PRODUCER.—The term “domes-5                         tic producer” means a United States person that 6                         produces a good within the United States.

7                         (4) ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.—The term
8                         “economic development” means—

- 9                             (A) improving workforce development;
- 10                          (B) building public infrastructure;
- 11                          (C) improving access to health care, social 12                         services, healthy food, or education;
- 13                          (D) complying with environmental stand-14                         ards set forth by the Federal Government;

- 16                          (F) expanding access to broadband.

17                         (5) ELIGIBLE RECIPIENT.—The term “eligible 18                         recipient” means a political subdivision of a State in 19                         which an affected community is located.

20                         (6) INJURY FROM TRADE.—The term “injury 21                         from trade” means—

- 22                          (A) an injury that has been determined to 23                         have occurred by the United States Inter-24                         national Trade Commission—

- 1                             (i) in the course of an investigation by 2                             the Commission into dumping or subsidiza-
3                             tion under section 701 or 731 of the Tariff 4                             Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671 and 1673); 5                             or
6                             (ii) under section 202(b) of the Trade
7                             Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2252(b)); 8                             (B) with respect to a domestic producer or 9                             a worker at a workplace of that producer, the 10                           Secretary of Commerce determines that—11                             (i) a significant number or proportion 12                             of the workers at that workplace have be-13                             come totally or partially separated, or are 14                             threatened to become totally or partially 15                             separated; and 16                             (ii)(I)(aa) the sales or production, or 17                             both, of that producer have decreased ab-18                             solutely at that workplace;
19                             (bb)(AA) imports of articles or serv-
20                             ices like or directly competitive with arti-21                             cles produced or services supplied by that 22                             producer at that workplace have increased;
23                             (BB) imports of articles like or di-24                             rectly competitive with articles into which 25                             one or more component parts produced by

1                   that producer at that workplace are incor-
2                   porated have increased;

3                   (CC) imports of articles like or di-4                   rectly competitive with articles that are 5                   produced using services supplied by that
6                   producer at that workplace have increased;
7                   or

8                   (DD) imports of articles incorporating 9                   one or more component parts produced 10                  outside the United States that are like or 11                  directly competitive with imports of articles
12                  incorporating one or more component parts 13                  produced by that producer at that work-14                  place have increased; and 15                  (cc) the increase in imports described 16                  in item (bb) contributed importantly to the 17                  separation or threat of separation by work-18                  ers at that workplace and to the decline in 19                  the sales or production of that producer at 20                  that workplace; or

21                  (II)(aa)(AA) there has been a shift by 22                  that producer to a foreign country in the 23                  production of articles or the supply of serv-
24                  ices like or directly competitive with arti-
25                  cles that are produced or services that are

1 supplied by that producer at that work-
2 place; or

3 (BB) that producer has acquired from 4 a foreign country articles or services that 5 are like or directly competitive with articles 6 that are produced or services that are sup-
7 plied by that producer at that workplace; 8 and

9 (bb) the shift described in item
10 (aa)(AA) or the acquisition of articles or 11 services described in item (aa)(BB) con-12 tributed importantly to the separation or 13 threat of separation by workers at that 14 workplace; or

15 (C) any other trade-related injury to a do-16 mestic producer or worker as determined by the 17 Secretary of Commerce.
