IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 8, 2016

Mr. MENENDEZ (for himself and Mr. RUBIO) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To amend the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 to clarify report dates, modify the criteria for determinations of whether countries are meeting the minimum standards for elimination of trafficking, and highlight the importance of concrete actions by countries to eliminate trafficking, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Trafficking In Persons Report Integrity Act”.

1 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

2 Section 103 of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act
3 of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7102) is amended—

4 (1) by redesignating paragraphs (5) through 5 (15) as paragraphs (7) through (17), respectively;

6 (2) by inserting after paragraph (4) the fol-
7 lowing:

8 “(5) CONCRETE ACTIONS.—The term ‘concrete 9 actions’ means any of the following actions that de-10 monstrably improve the condition of a substantial 11 number of victims of human trafficking and persons 12 vulnerable to human trafficking:

13 “(A) Enforcement actions taken.

14 “(B) Investigations actively underway.

15 “(C) Prosecutions conducted.

16 “(D) Convictions attained.

17 “(E) Training provided.

18 “(F) Programs and partnerships actively

23 ment in question has committed to the actions
24 described in subparagraphs (A) through (G).

1           “(I) An assessment of the impact of such 2           actions on the prevalence of human trafficking 3           in the country.

4           “(6) CREDIBLE EVIDENCE.—The term ‘credible
5           evidence’ means information relied upon by the De-6           partment of State to make determinations relating 7           to the provisions set forth in this division, includ-
8           ing—

9           “(A) reports by the Department of State;

10           “(B) reports of other Federal agencies, in-11           cluding the Department of Labor’s List of 12           Goods Produced by Child Labor or Forced 13           Labor;

14           “(C) documentation provided by a foreign 15           country, including copies of relevant laws, regu-16           lations, policies adopted or modified, enforce-17           ment actions taken and judicial proceedings, 18           training conducted, consultations conducted,
19           programs and partnerships launched, and serv-
20           ices provided;

21           “(D) materials developed by civil society 22           organizations;

23           “(E) information from survivors of human 24           trafficking, vulnerable persons, and whistle-25           blowers;

1           “(F) all relevant media and academic re-2           ports that, in light of reason and common 3           sense, are worthy of belief; and 4           “(G) information developed by multilateral 5           institutions.”; and

6           (3) in paragraph (10), as redesignated—

7           (A) in the paragraph heading, by striking
8           “NONTRADE-RELATED” and inserting “NON-9           ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING RELATED”;

10          (B) in the matter preceding subparagraph
11          (A), by striking “nontrade-related” and insert-12          ing “non-anti-human trafficking related”; and

13          (C) in subparagraph (A)(ix), by striking 14          “trade-related” and inserting “anti-human traf-15          ficking-related”.

16 SEC. 3. MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE ELIMINATION OF 17 TRAFFICKING.

18          Section 108(b) of the Trafficking Victims Protection 19 Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7106(b)) is amended—

20          (1) in paragraph (1)—

21          (A) by inserting “and without bias” after 22          “vigorously”;

23 lowing:

1           “(D) the extent to which the government
2 of the country is devoting sufficient budgetary
3 resources—

4           “(i) to investigate and prosecute acts 5 of severe trafficking in persons;

6           “(ii) to convict and sentence persons 7 responsible for such acts; and 8           “(iii) to obtain restitution for victims 9 of human trafficking;

10          “(E) the extent to which the government
11 of the country is devoting sufficient budgetary
12 resources—

13          “(i) to protect and rehabilitate victims 14 of trafficking in persons; and 15          “(ii) to prevent severe forms of traf-16 ficking in persons;

17          “(F) the extent to which the government of 18 the country has consulted with domestic and 19 international civil society organizations to im-20 prove the provision of services to victims of 21 trafficking in persons; and 22          “(G) whether—

23          “(i) government officials participate in 24 or facilitate forced labor and human traf-25 ficking; and

1           “(ii) the government maintains poli-
2           cies that provide incentives for or otherwise 3           support the participation in or facilitation 4           of forced labor and human trafficking by 5           officials at any level of government.”; and 6           (D) by adding at the end the following:

7           “(4) SPECIAL RULE FOR CHANGES IN CERTAIN 8           DETERMINATIONS.—Not later than 90 days after 9           the submission of each annual report under para-10          graph (1), the Secretary of State shall submit a de-11          tailed description of the credible evidence supporting 12          a change in listing of a country, accompanied by 13          copies of documents providing such evidence, as ap-14          propriate, to the appropriate congressional commit-15          tees not later than 90 days after the submission of 16          that report if—

17               “(A) a country is included on a list of 18               countries described in paragraph (1)(C) in an 19               annual report submitted in calendar year 2015 20               or in any calendar year thereafter; and 21               “(B) in the annual report submitted in the 22               next calendar year, the country is listed on a 23               list of countries described in paragraph (1)(B).

24           “(5) WRITTEN PLAN.—The Secretary of State 25          shall endeavor to work with each country that has

1       been listed pursuant to paragraph (1)(C) in the 2       most recent annual report and civil society organiza-
3       tions to draft and implement the written plan de-4       scribed in paragraph (2)(D)(ii).”.

5       (b) LIMITATION OF WAIVER AUTHORITY.—Section
6 110(d) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000
7 (22 U.S.C. 7107(d)) is amended—

8             (1) in paragraph (1)—

9                 (A) in the paragraph heading, by striking
10                “NONTRADE-RELATED” and inserting “NON-
11                ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING RELATED”;

12               (B) by striking subparagraph (B);

13               (C) in subparagraph (A)—

14                     (i) in clause (i)—

15                         (I) by striking “(i)”; and 16                         (II) by striking “nontrade-re-17                        lated” and inserting “non-anti-human 18                        trafficking related”; and 19                     (ii) by redesignating clause (ii) as 20                         subparagraph (B); and 21                 (D) in subparagraph (B), as redesignated, 22                by striking “nontrade-related” and inserting 23                “non-anti-human trafficking related”;

24             (2) in paragraph (4)—

1 (A) by striking “nontrade-related” and in-
2 serting “non-anti-human trafficking related”; 3 and

4 (B) by striking “or the multilateral assist-5 ance described in paragraph (1)(B), or both,”; 6 and

7 (3) in paragraph (5)(A)—

8 (A) in clause (i)—

9 (i) by striking “nontrade-related” and 10 inserting “non-anti-human trafficking re-11 lated”; and

12 (ii) by adding “or” at the end;

13 (B) by striking clause (ii); and

14 (C) by redesignating clause (iii) as clause 15 (ii).

16 (c) SUBSEQUENT WAIVER AUTHORITY.—Section
17 110(f) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 18 (22 U.S.C. 7107(f)) is amended by inserting “and has 19 submitted a report to the Committee on Foreign Relations 20 of the Senate and the Committee on Foreign Affairs of 21 the House of Representatives that describes in detail the 22 credible evidence that the country has taken concrete ac-23 tions to implement the principal recommendations of the 24 most recent annual report on trafficking in persons with

1 respect to that country and includes copies of relevant doc-2 uments” after “government of a country”.

3 SEC. 5. UNITED STATES OPPOSITION TO ANY ACTION BY 4 CERTAIN INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTI-
5 TUTIONS THAT DOES NOT REQUIRE THE RE-
6 CIPIENT GOVERNMENT TO WORK TO ELIMI-
7 NATE HUMAN TRAFFICKING.

8 (a) REQUIREMENT.—The President shall instruct the 9 United States Executive Director of each international fi-
10 nancial institution—

11 (1) to support the United States policy goal of 12 advancing the cause of ending modern slavery and 13 human trafficking, including by seeking to channel
14 assistance toward countries other than countries
15 whose governments—

16 (A) do not fully comply with the minimum 17 standards set forth in section 108(a) of the 18 Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22 19 U.S.C. 7106(a)); and

20 (B) are not making significant efforts to 21 comply with such standards;

22 (2) to use the voice and vote of the United 23 States to oppose any loan, project, agreement, 24 memorandum, instrument, plan, or other program 25 involving a country that is described in paragraph

1 (1)(C) or (2)(A)(iii) of section 110(b) of the Traf-
2 ficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C.
3 7107(b)) (commonly known as “Tier 3 Countries” 4 and “Tier 2 Watch List Countries”, respectively) if 5 the loan, project, agreement, memorandum, instru-
6 ment, plan, or other program does not actively pro-
7 mote and work to achieve the minimum standards
8 set forth in section 108(a) of the Trafficking Victims
9 Protection Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7106(a));

10 (3) to encourage other nations to adopt policies 11 that are consistent with subparagraph (B); and 12 (4) to initiate discussions with the other execu-13 tive directors of the respective international financial 14 institution proposing that each such institution de-15 velop anti-human trafficking provisions in its project 16 safeguards and procurement policies, taking into 17 consideration the minimum standards set forth in 18 section 108(a) of the Trafficking Victims Protection 19 Act of 2000 (22 U.S.C. 7106(a)) and the Abolition 20 of Forced Labour Convention, 1957, which was 21 adopted by the International Labour Organisation in 22 Geneva on June 25, 1957.

23 (b) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

24 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than July 1 of 25 each year, the Secretary of the Treasury shall sub-

1 mit an annual report to the Chairman and Ranking 2 Member of the Committee on Foreign Relations of 3 the Senate and the Chairman and Ranking Member
4 of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House
5 of Representatives that describes all loans to Tier 3 6 Countries and Tier 2 Watch List Countries that 7 were considered by the Board of Executive Directors 8 of each international financial institution during the 9 preceding 12-month reporting period.

10 (2) CONTENTS.—Each report required under 11 paragraph (1) shall—

12 (A) include a list of all loans considered by 13 the Board of Executive Directors of each inter-14 national financial institution;

15 (B) specify, with respect to each such 16 loan—

17 (i) the institution involved;

18 (ii) the date of final action;

19 (iii) the borrower;

20 (iv) the amount;

21 (v) the project or program;

22 (vi) the vote of the United States Gov-23 ernment;

24 (vii) the reason for United States
25 Government opposition, if any; and

1 (viii) the final disposition of the loan;

2 (C) indicate whether the United States has 3 opposed any loan, financial assistance, or tech-4 nical assistance to a country based upon the 5 prevalence of human trafficking within such 6 country;

7 (D) indicate whether the United States has 8 voted in favor of a loan, financial assistance, or 9 technical assistance to a country with respect to 10 which the United States had, in the preceding 11 2 years, opposed a loan, financial assistance, or 12 technical assistance based upon a reduction of 13 human trafficking within such country;

14 (E) in cases in which the United States
15 changed its voting position, regarding a loan, fi-16 nancial assistance, or technical assistance to a 17 country, from opposition to support or from 18 support to opposition based upon the response 19 by the government of such country to human 20 trafficking within such country—

21 (i) indicate the policy considerations
22 that were taken into account in the devel-
23 opment of the United States voting posi-
24 tion;

1                   (ii) indicate how the United States
2                   voted on all other loans, financial assist-3                   ance, and technical assistance to such 4                   country during the preceding 2 years; and

5                   (iii) describe how the United States 6                   voting position relates to the overall United 7                   States Government policy on human traf-8                   ficking in such country; and 9                   (F) describe the efforts of each inter-10                  national financial institution to implement anti-11                  human trafficking provisions in its project safe-12                  guards and procurement policies.

13               (c) DEFINED TERM.—In this section, the term 14               “international financial institution” includes—

15               (1) the International Bank for Reconstruction
16               and Development;

17               (2) the European Bank for Reconstruction and 18               Development;

19               (3) the International Development Association;

20               (4) the International Finance Corporation;
