IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 10, 2022

Mr. PORTMAN (for himself and Ms. SINEMA) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

---

A BILL

To authorize preparedness programs to support communities containing technological hazards and emerging threats.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Technological Hazards
5       Preparedness and Training Act of 2022”.

6       SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7       In this Act:

8           (1) ADMINISTRATOR.—The term “Adminis-
9           trator” means the Administrator of the Federal
10          Emergency Management Agency.

1                             (2) INDIAN TRIBAL GOVERNMENT.—The term
2        “Indian Tribal government” has the meaning given
3        the term “Indian tribal government” in section 102
4        of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emer-
5        gency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122).

6                             (3) LOCAL GOVERNMENT; STATE.—The terms
7        “local government” and “State” have the meaning
8        given those terms in section 102 of the Robert T.
9        Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance
10      Act (42 U.S.C. 5122).

11                           (4) TECHNOLOGICAL HAZARD AND RELATED
12      EMERGING THREAT.—The term “technological haz-
13      ard and related emerging threat”—

14                             (A) means a hazard that involves materials
15        created by humans that pose a unique hazard
16        to the general public and environment and 17        which may result from—

18                                 (i) an accident;
19                                 (ii) an emergency caused by another
20        hazard; or

21                                 (iii) intentional use of the hazardous
22        materials; and

23                             (B) includes a chemical, radiological, bio-
24        logical, and nuclear hazard.

1     SEC. 3. ASSISTANCE AND TRAINING FOR COMMUNITIES
2                         WITH TECHNOLOGICAL HAZARDS AND RE-
3                         LATED EMERGING THREATS.

4         (a) IN GENERAL.—The Administrator shall maintain 5     the capacity to provide States and local governments with 6     technological hazards and related emerging threats tech-
7     nical assistance, training, and other preparedness pro-
8     gramming to build community resilience to technological
9     hazards and related emerging threats.

10         (b) AUTHORITIES.—The Administrator shall carry
11     out subsection (a) in accordance with—

12                 (1) the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and 13     Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq.);
14                 (2) section 1236 of the Disaster Recovery Re-
15     form Act of 2018 (42 U.S.C. 5196g); and

16                 (3) the Post-Katrina Emergency Management
17     Reform Act of 2006 (Public Law 109–295; 120
18     Stat. 1394).

19         (c) ASSESSMENT AND NOTIFICATION.—In carrying 20     out subsection (a), the Administrator shall—

21                 (1) use any available and appropriate multi-
22     hazard risk assessment and mapping tools and capa-
23     bilities to identify the communities that have the 24     highest risk of and vulnerability to a technological
25     hazard in each State; and

1                             (2) ensure each State and Indian Tribal govern-
2                             ment is aware of—

3                                 (A) the communities identified under para-
4                             graph (1); and

5                                 (B) the availability of programming under 6                             this section for—

7                                 (i) technological hazards and related 8                             emerging threats preparedness; and
9                                 (ii) building community capability.

10                             (d) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the date
11                             of enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Ad-
12                             ministrator shall submit to the Committee on Homeland
13                             Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, the Com-
14                             mittee on Appropriations of the Senate, the Com-
15                             mittee on Homeland Security of the House of Representa-
16                             tives, the Committee on Appropriations of the House of 17                             Representatives, and the Committee on Transportation
18                             and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives a re-19                             port relating to—

20                                 (1) actions taken to implement this section; and 21                                 (2) technological hazards and related emerging
22                             threats preparedness programming provided under 23                             this section during the 1-year period preceding the 24                             date of submission of the report.

1       (e) CONSULTATION.—The Secretary of Homeland Se-
2 curity may seek continuing input relating to technological
3 hazards and related emerging threats preparedness needs
4 by consulting State, Tribal, Territorial, and local emer-
5 gency services organizations and private sector stake-
6 holders.

7 SEC. 4. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

8       There are authorized to be appropriated to carry out
9 this Act $20,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2023 through 10 2024.
