8 sent of the Senate.

9 “(c) DUTIES.—The Ambassador is authorized to rep-
10 resent the United States in matters and cases relevant to 11 Arctic affairs and shall be responsible to the Secretary of 12 State for all matters, programs, and related activities per-13 taining to the Arctic region in the conduct of foreign policy
14 by the Department, including, as appropriate, leading the 15 coordination of programs carried out by United States
16 Government agencies abroad, and such other related du-17 ties as the Secretary may from time to time designate.

18 “(d) AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY.—The Ambassador-
19 at-Large for the Arctic Region is authorized to maintain 20 continuous observation and coordination of all matters in-21 dicated by the Secretary of State, including those per-22 taining to energy, environment, trade, and infrastructure
23 development and maintenance, and, in consultation with 24 the heads of other relevant departments and agencies,
25 those pertaining to law enforcement and political-military 26 affairs in the conduct of foreign policy in the Arctic, in-

1 cluding programs carried out by other United States Gov-
2 ernment agencies when such programs pertain to the fol-
3 lowing matters, to the extent directed by the Secretary of 4 State:

5 “(1) National security.

6 “(2) Strengthening cooperation among Arctic
7 countries.

8 “(3) The promotion of responsible natural re-
9 source management and economic development.

10 “(4) Protecting the Arctic environment and 11 conserving its biological resources.

12 “(5) Arctic indigenous peoples, including by in-13 volving them in decisions that affect them.

14 “(6) Scientific monitoring and research.

15 “(e) ADDITIONAL DUTIES.—In addition to the duties
16 and responsibilities specified in subsections (c) and (d), 17 the Ambassador-at-Large for the Arctic Region shall also 18 carry out such other relevant duties as the Secretary may 19 assign.

20 “(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

21 “(1) ARCTIC REGION.—The term ‘Arctic region’
22 means—

23 “(A) the geographic region north of the 24 66.56083 parallel latitude north of the equator;
