1 such motions shall be filed no later than 11 a.m. on the 2 date on which impeachment proceedings begin. All mate-
3 rials filed pursuant to this subsection shall be filed with 4 the Secretary and be printed and made available to all
5 parties. Arguments on such motions shall begin at 12 p.m.
6 on the date on which impeachment proceedings begin, and 7 each side may determine the number of persons to make 8 its presentation, following which the Senate shall delib-
9 erate, if so ordered under the Rules of Impeachment, and 10 vote on any such motions.

11 (c) PRESENTATIONS BY PARTIES.—Following the 12 disposition of such motions, or if no motions are made,
13 then the House of Representatives shall make its presen-
14 tation in support of the articles of impeachment for a pe-

6 of the period allotted for presentations by the parties as 7 provided under subsection (c), Senators may question the 8 parties for a period of time not to exceed 4 hours over 9 not more than 1 session day.

10 (e) ARGUMENT AND DELIBERATION.—Upon conclu-
11 sion of the period allotted for Senators' questions as pro-
12 vided under subsection (d), there shall be 2 hours of argu-
13 ment, equally divided between the parties, followed by de-
14 liberation by the Senate, if so ordered under the Rules
15 of Impeachment, on the question of whether it shall be 16 in order to consider and debate under the Rules of Im-
17 peachment any motion to subpoena witnesses or docu-
18 ments. The Senate, without any intervening action, mo-19 tion, or amendment, shall then decide by the yeas and 20 nays whether it shall be in order to consider and debate
21 under the Rules of Impeachment any motion to subpoena
22 witnesses or documents. Following the disposition of that 23 question, other motions provided under the Rules of Im-
24 peachment shall be in order.

25 (f) WITNESSES.—

1                     (1) IN GENERAL.—If the Senate agrees to allow

9 shall be admissible in the Senate unless the parties
10 have had the opportunity to depose such witnesses
11 and to conduct other appropriate discovery.

12                     (2) RULES.—If the Senate agrees to allow ei-13 ther party to subpoena witnesses, provisions for the 14 admission of evidence, issuance of subpoenas, ar-
15 rangements for depositions, other appropriate dis-
16 covery, testimony by witnesses in the Senate, if such 17 testimony is ordered by the Senate, and any related 18 matters are to be determined by subsequent resolu-
19 tion of the Senate.

20                     (g) MOTION TO ADMIT EVIDENCE.—

21                     (1) IN GENERAL.—If the Senate decides that 22 no party shall be permitted to subpoena witnesses
23 pursuant to subsection (f), the House of Representa-
24 tives shall be recognized to make a motion to admit
25 into evidence the materials relied upon by the House

1 of Representatives during the trial. The House of 2 Representatives shall be recognized to make such a
3 motion, however, only if it has disclosed to Alejandro
4 Nicholas Mayorkas all materials it will move to 5 admit into evidence at least 48 hours before making
6 said motion. Arguments on the motion shall be lim-
7 ited to 1 hour equally divided. The Senate, without 8 any intervening action, motion, or amendment, shall
9 then decide by the yeas and nays whether to admit
10 into evidence such materials. If a majority of Sen-
11 ators voting, a quorum being present, shall vote in 12 the affirmative, the materials shall be admitted into
13 evidence. If a majority of Senators voting, a quorum
14 being present, shall vote in the negative, the mate-

19 Mayorkas shall be recognized to make such a mo-
20 tion, however, only if he has disclosed to the House
21 of Representatives all materials he will move to
22 admit into evidence at least 48 hours before making
23 said motion. Arguments on the motion shall be lim-
24 ited to 1 hour equally divided. The Senate, without 25 any intervening action, motion, or amendment, shall

1       then decide by the yeas and nays whether to admit
2       into evidence such materials. If a majority of Sen-
3       ators voting, a quorum being present, shall vote in
4       the affirmative, the materials shall be admitted into
5       evidence. If a majority of Senators voting, a quorum
6       being present, shall vote in the negative, the mate-
7       rials shall not be admitted into evidence.

8                     (2) EXCEPTION TO DISCLOSURE REQUIRE-
9       MENTS.—The disclosure requirements established
10      under paragraph (1) shall not apply to evidence dis-
11      covered by the movant after the disclosure deadline, 12      so long as the movant declares in writing that the 13      movant was unaware of such evidence until after the 14      disclosure deadline, and that such evidence could not 15      reasonably have been discovered until after the dis-
16      closure deadline.

17                     (3) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The admission
18      of any evidence pursuant to this subsection shall not 19      be treated as a concession by any party as to the 20      truth of the matter asserted by the parties, and the 21      Senate as the trier of fact shall decide the weight to 22      be given such evidence.

23                     (h) CONVENING ON SUNDAY.—Unless the Senate
24      shall have already voted on the articles of impeachment, 25      the Senate shall convene as a Court of Impeachment at

1 2 p.m. on the Sunday following the date on which im-
2 peachment proceedings begin, notwithstanding rule III of 3 the Rules of Impeachment.

4 (i) FINAL ARGUMENTS.—Immediately upon the con-
5 clusion of any action by the Senate under subsection (g),
6 or immediately upon the next day on which the Senate
7 reconvenes as a Court of Impeachment after the conclu-
8 sion of such action, the Senate shall proceed to final argu-
9 ments as provided in the Rules of Impeachment, waiving 10 the 2-person rule contained in rule XXII of the Rules of 11 Impeachment. Such arguments shall not exceed 4 hours,
12 equally divided between the parties.

13 (j) VOTE.—At the conclusion of final arguments as 14 provided under subsection (i), the Senate, without inter-15 vening action, except for deliberation if so ordered under
