

114TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. RES. 351

Designating the week of January 24 through January 30, 2016, as “National School Choice Week”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 28, 2016

Mr. SCOTT (for himself, Mr. ENZI, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. CRUZ, Mr. ALEXANDER, Mr. JOHNSON, Mr. CASSIDY, Mr. DAINES, Mr. CORNYN, Mr. VITTER, Mr. TILLIS, Ms. AYOTTE, Mr. HATCH, Mr. WICKER, Mr. PERDUE, Mr. CRAPO, Mr. GARDNER, Mr. BOOKER, and Mr. LANKFORD) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

Designating the week of January 24 through January 30, 2016, as “National School Choice Week”.

Whereas providing a diversity of choices in K–12 education empowers parents to select education environments that meet the individual needs and strengths of their children;

Whereas high-quality K–12 education environments of all varieties are available in the United States, including traditional public schools, public charter schools, public magnet schools, private schools, online academies, and home schooling;

Whereas talented teachers and school leaders in each of the education environments prepare children to achieve their dreams;

Whereas more families than ever before in the United States actively choose the best education for their children;

Whereas more public awareness of the issue of parental choice in education can inform additional families of the benefits of proactively choosing challenging, motivating, and effective education environments for their children;

Whereas the process by which parents choose schools for their children is nonpolitical, nonpartisan, and deserves the utmost respect; and

Whereas hundreds of organizations, more than 9,000 schools, and millions of individuals in the United States celebrate the benefits of educational choice during the 6th annual National School Choice Week, held the week of January 24 through January 30, 2016: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) designates the week of January 24 through
3 January 30, 2016, as “National School Choice
4 Week”;

5 (2) congratulates students, parents, teachers,
6 and school leaders from K–12 education environ-
7 ments of all varieties for their persistence, achieve-
8 ments, dedication, and contributions to society in the 9 United States;

10 (3) encourages all parents, during National
11 School Choice Week, to learn more about the edu-
12 cation options available to them; and

13 (4) encourages the people of the United States
14 to hold appropriate programs, events, and activities

1 during National School Choice Week to raise public
2 awareness of the benefits of opportunity in edu-
3 cation.
