State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Revenues	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Dedicated Credits Revenue	$0	$30,000	$0
Total Revenues	$0	$30,000	$0

Enactment of this bill could transfer from Utah law enforcement agencies to a federal agency a portion of the estimated $1,748,000 collected by state entities and add to the estimated $1,074,000 collected to the Federal Surcharge. The diversion of collections could change amounts collected to the Department of Public Safety and the Attorney General's Office, however the magnitude of the change is unknown. The Department of Public Safety could collect $10,000 and the Utah Prosecution Council could collect $20,000 both one-time in Dedicated Credits from the State Asset Forfeiture Grant Program to develop online training for local prosecutors and law enforcement.

Expenditures	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
General Fund	$0	$2,000	$2,000

Net All Funds	$0	$(32,000)	$(2,000)

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this bill could divert asset forfeiture collections to a federal agency which could affect total funds granted to local law enforcement agencies by an unknown amount. The diversion of collections could also reduce the amount collected by local prosecution offices in an unknown amount. This reduction could be offset by a reduction in workload to local prosecutors as cases are diverted to a federal agency. This bill could also cost local police departments an estimated annualized $1,800 and local prosecution offices an estimated annualized $1,500 ongoing to complete an annual asset forfeiture certification.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct expenditures from tax or fee changes for Utah residents and businesses.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
