144 welfare may petition for a finding of incapacity and appointment of a guardian.

145           (2) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall set a date for hearing on the issues of 146 incapacity~~[-and unless].~~ Unless the allegedly incapacitated person has counsel of the person's 147 own choice, ~~[it]~~ the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the person in the proceeding the 148 cost of which shall be paid by the person alleged to be incapacitated~~[-unless].~~ If the court
149 determines that the petition is without merit, ~~[in which case]~~ the attorney fees and court costs
150 shall be paid by the person filing the petition. If the court appoints the petitioner or the 151 petitioner's nominee as guardian of the incapacitated person, regardless of whether the nominee

152 is specified in the moving petition or nominated during the proceedings, the petitioner shall be 153 entitled to receive from the incapacitated person reasonable attorney fees and court costs
154 incurred in bringing and defending the petition.

155 (3) The legal representation of the incapacitated person by an attorney shall terminate 156 upon the appointment of a guardian, unless:

157 (a) there are separate conservatorship proceedings pending before the court;

158 (b) the appointed guardian elects at the time to maintain the attorney's representation of 159 the incapacitated person;

160 (c) there is a timely filed appeal of the appointment of the guardian or the 161 determination of incapacity; or

162 (d) the court orders otherwise.

163 ~~[(3)]~~ (4) The person alleged to be incapacitated may be examined by a physician
164 appointed by the court who shall submit a report in writing to the court and may be interviewed
165 by a visitor sent by the court. The visitor also may interview the person seeking appointment 166 as guardian, visit the present place of abode of the person alleged to be incapacitated and the 167 place it is proposed that the person will be detained or reside if the requested appointment is 168 made, and submit a report in writing to the court.

169 ~~[(4)]~~ (5) (a) The person alleged to be incapacitated shall be present at the hearing in 170 person and see or hear all evidence bearing upon the person's condition. If the person seeking 171 the guardianship requests a waiver of presence of the person alleged to be incapacitated, the 172 court shall order an investigation by a court visitor, the costs of which shall be paid by the 173 person seeking the guardianship.

174 (b) The investigation by a court visitor is not required if there is clear and convincing 175 evidence from a physician that the person alleged to be incapacitated has:

176 (i) fourth stage Alzheimer's Disease;

177 (ii) extended comatosis; or

178 (iii) (A) an intellectual disability; and

179 (B) an intelligence quotient score under 20 to 25.

181 present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed physician and the 182 visitor, and to trial by jury. The issue may be determined at a closed hearing without a jury if 183 the person alleged to be incapacitated or the person's counsel so requests.

184 Section 5. Section 75-5-307 is amended to read:

185 75-5-307. Removal or resignation of guardian -- Termination of incapacity.

186 (1) On petition of the ward or any person interested in the ward's welfare, the court
187 may remove a guardian and appoint a successor if in the best interests of the ward. On petition
188 of the guardian, the court may accept the guardian's resignation and make any other order 189 which may be appropriate.

190 (2) An order adjudicating incapacity may specify a minimum period, not exceeding one
191 year, during which no petition for an adjudication that the ward is no longer incapacitated may 192 be filed without special leave. Subject to this restriction, the ward or any person interested in 193 the ward's welfare may petition for an order that the ward is no longer incapacitated and for 194 removal or resignation of the guardian. A request for this order may be made by informal letter 195 to the court or judge and any person who knowingly interferes with transmission of this kind of 196 request to the court or judge may be adjudged guilty of contempt of court.

197 (3) Before removing a guardian, accepting the resignation of a guardian, or ordering
198 that a ward's incapacity has terminated, the court shall follow the same procedures to safeguard 199 the rights of the ward as apply to a petition for appointment of a guardian as provided ~~[under]~~ 200 in Section 75-5-303. The court is not required to appoint an attorney to represent the ward if 201 the case is uncontested and the ward's incapacity is not at issue.

202 Section 6. Section 75-5-407 is amended to read:

203 75-5-407. Procedure concerning hearing and order on original petition.

204 (1) Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order 205 because of minority, the court shall set a date for the hearing on the matters alleged in the 206 petition. If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the minor 207 are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, 208 giving consideration to the choice of the minor if 14 years of age or older. ~~[A lawyer]~~ An 209 attorney appointed by the court to represent a minor has the powers and duties of a guardian ad 210 litem.

211 (2) Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order
212 for reasons other than minority, the court shall set a date for hearing. Unless the person to be 213 protected has already retained counsel ~~[of his own choice]~~, the court may appoint ~~[a lawyer]~~ an

214 attorney to represent [him] the person to be protected who then has the powers and duties of a 215 guardian ad litem.

216 (3) The legal representation of the protected person by an attorney shall terminate upon 217 the appointment of a conservator, unless:

218 (a) there are separate guardianship proceedings pending before the court;

219 (b) the appointed conservator elects at the time to maintain the attorney's representation
220 of the protected person;

221 (c) there is a timely filed appeal of the appointment of the conservator or the 222 determination of the incapacity; or

223 (d) the court orders otherwise.

224 (4) If the alleged disability is mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or 225 disability, advanced age, chronic use of drugs, or chronic intoxication, the court may direct that 226 the person to be protected be examined by a physician designated by the court, preferably a 227 physician who is not connected with any institution in which the person is a patient or is 228 detained. The court may send a visitor to interview the person to be protected. The visitor may 229 be a guardian ad litem or an officer or employee of the court.

230 ~~[(3)]~~ (5) After hearing, upon finding that a basis for the appointment of a conservator 231 or other protective order has been established, the court shall make an appointment or other 232 appropriate protective order.

233 Section 7. Section 75-5-408 is amended to read:

234 75-5-408. Permissible court orders.

235 (1) The court has the following powers which may be exercised directly or through a 236 conservator in respect to the estate and affairs of protected persons:

237 (a) While a petition for appointment of a conservator or other protective order is 238 pending and after preliminary hearing and without notice to others, the court has power to 239 preserve and apply the property of the person to be protected as may be required for the 240 person's benefit or the benefit of the person's dependents.

241 (b) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 242 protective order exists with respect to a minor without other disability, the court has all those 243 powers over the estate and affairs of the minor which are or might be necessary for the best 244 interests of the minor, the minor's family, and the members of the minor's household.

245 (c) After hearing and upon determining that a basis for an appointment or other 246 protective order exists with respect to a person for reasons other than minority, the court has,
247 for the benefit of the person and members of the person's household, all the powers over the 248 person's estate and affairs that the person could exercise if present and not under disability, 249 except the power to make a will. These powers include the power to:

250 (i) make gifts~~[-to]~~;

251 (ii) convey or release the person's contingent and expectant interests in property 252 including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or 253 tenancy by the entirety~~[-to]~~;

254 (iii) exercise or release the person's powers as ~~[trustee,]~~ personal representative, 255 custodian for minors, conservator, or donee of a power of appointment~~[-to]~~;

256 (iv) enter into contracts~~[-to]~~;

257 (v) create revocable or irrevocable trusts of property of the estate that may extend 258 beyond the person's disability or life~~[-to]~~;

259 (vi) exercise options of the person with a disability to purchase securities or other 260 property~~[-to]~~;

261 (vii) exercise the person's rights to elect options and change beneficiaries under 262 insurance and annuity policies and to surrender the policies for their cash value~~[-to]~~;

263 (viii) exercise the person's right to an elective share in the estate of the person's 264 deceased spouse~~[-]~~; and ~~[to]~~

265 (ix) renounce any interest by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transfer.

266 (d) The court may exercise, or direct the exercise of, its authority to exercise or release 267 powers of appointment of which the protected person is donee, to renounce interests, to make 268 gifts in trust or otherwise exceeding 20% of any year's income of the estate, or to change
269 beneficiaries under insurance and annuity policies, only if satisfied, after notice and hearing, 270 that it is in the best interests of the protected person, and that the person either is incapable of 271 consenting or has consented to the proposed exercise of power.

272 (2) An order made pursuant to this section determining that a basis for appointment of 273 a conservator or other protective order exists has no effect on the capacity of the protected 274 person.

275 Section 8. Section 75-5-414 is amended to read:

276 75-5-414. Compensation and expenses.

277 If not otherwise compensated for services rendered, any visitor, lawyer, physician, 278 conservator, or special conservator appointed in a protective proceeding is entitled to 279 reasonable compensation from the estate. If the court appoints the petitioner or the petitioner's 280 nominee as conservator over the protected person, regardless of whether the nominee is 281 specified in the moving petition or nominated during the proceedings, the petitioner is entitled 282 to receive from the estate reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred in bringing and 283 defending the petition.

284 Section 9. Section 75-5-415 is amended to read:

285 75-5-415. Death, resignation, or removal of conservator.

286 (1) The court may remove a conservator for good cause, upon notice and hearing, or 287 accept the resignation of a conservator. After [his] the death, resignation, or removal of a
288 conservator, the court may appoint another conservator. A conservator so appointed succeeds 289 to the title and powers of [his predecessor] the preceding conservator.

290 (2) An order adjudicating incapacity may specify a minimum period, not exceeding one
291 year, during which no petition for an adjudication that the protected person is no longer
292 incapacitated may be filed without special leave. Subject to this restriction, the protected 293 person or any person interested in the protected person's welfare may petition for an order that 294 the protected person is no longer incapacitated and for removal or resignation of the 295 conservator. A request for this order may be made by informal letter to the court or judge and 296 any person who knowingly interferes with transmission of the request to the court or judge may 297 be found guilty of contempt of court.

298 (3) Before removing a conservator, accepting the resignation of a conservator, or 299 ordering that a protected person's incapacity has terminated, the court shall follow the same
300 procedures to safeguard the rights of the protected person as apply to a petition for appointment
301 of a conservator as provided in Section 75-5-407.

302 Section 10. Section 75-5-418 is amended to read:

303 75-5-418. Inventory and records.

304 (1) Within 90 days after [his] appointment~~[, every]~~ of a conservator, the conservator 305 shall prepare and file with the appointing court a complete inventory of the estate of the 306 protected person together with [his] an oath or affirmation that it is complete and accurate so

307 far as ~~[he]~~ the conservator is informed. The estate of the protected person does not include the 308 assets of a trust.

309 (2) The conservator shall provide a copy ~~[thereof]~~ of the inventory to the protected
 310 person if ~~[he]~~ the person:

311 (a) can be located~~[-]~~;

312 (b) has attained the age of 14 years~~[-]~~; and

313 (c) has sufficient mental capacity to understand these matters, and to any parent or 314 guardian with whom the protected person resides.

315 (3) The conservator shall keep suitable administrative records ~~[of his administration]~~
 316 and ~~[exhibit the same on]~~ produce them upon the request of any interested person.

317 Section 11. Section 75-5-419 is amended to read:

318 75-5-419. Accounts.

319 (1) Every conservator must account to the court for ~~[his]~~ the administration of the 320 ~~[trust]~~ estate upon ~~[his]~~ resignation or removal and at any other times ~~[as]~~ the court may direct.

321 (2) On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator may 322 account to the court, ~~[or he may account to]~~ the former protected person, or ~~[his]~~ the personal 323 representative of the protected person.

324 (3) Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice 325 and hearing, allowing an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to ~~[his]~~ any 326 liabilities concerning the matters considered in connection with ~~[this]~~ the protected person's 327 account, and an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing a final account adjudicates as to 328 all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or ~~[his]~~ the 329 protected person's successors relating to the conservatorship.

330 (4) In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a 331 physical check of the estate in ~~[his]~~ the conservator's control, to be made in any manner the 332 court may specify.

333 Section 12. Section 75-5-420 is amended to read:

334 75-5-420. Conservators -- Title by appointment.

335 (1) The appointment of a conservator vests in ~~[him]~~ the conservator title as ~~[trustee]~~
 336 fiduciary to all property of the protected person, presently held or thereafter acquired, not 337 including the assets of a trust, including title to any property previously held for the protected

338 person by custodians or attorneys-in-fact, except for property held pursuant to any uniform gifts 339 to minors act or provisions.

340 (2) The appointment of a conservator is not a transfer or alienation within the meaning
341 of general provisions of any federal or state statute or regulation, insurance policy, pension 342 plan, contract, will, or trust instrument imposing restrictions upon or penalties for transfer or 343 alienation by the protected person of [~~his~~] any rights or interest, but this section does not 344 restrict the ability of persons to make specific provision by contract or dispositive instrument 345 relating to a conservator.

346 Section 13. Section 75-5-424 is amended to read:

347 75-5-424. Powers of conservator in administration.

348 (1) A conservator has all of the powers conferred in this chapter and any additional 349 powers conferred by law on trustees in this state. In addition, a conservator of the estate of an 350 unmarried minor as to whom no one has parental rights, has the duties and powers of a 351 guardian of a minor described in Section 75-5-209 until the minor attains majority or marries,
352 but the parental rights so conferred on a conservator do not preclude appointment of a guardian
353 as provided by Part 2 of this chapter.

354 (2) A conservator has power without court authorization or confirmation to invest and 355 reinvest funds of the estate as would a trustee.

356 (3) A conservator, acting reasonably in efforts to accomplish the purpose for which 357 [~~he~~] the conservator was appointed, may act without court authorization or confirmation, to:

358 (a) collect, hold, and retain assets of the estate, including land in another state, until, in 359 his judgment, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even 360 though they include an asset in which he is personally interested;

361 (b) receive additions to the estate;

362 (c) continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise;

363 (d) acquire an undivided interest in an estate asset in which the conservator, in any

421 Section 14. Section 75-5-425 is amended to read:

422 75-5-425. Distributive duties and powers of conservator.

423 (1) A conservator may expend or distribute income or principal of the estate without 424 court authorization or confirmation for the support, education, care, or benefit of the protected 425 person and his dependents in accordance with the following principles:

426 (a) The conservator is to consider recommendations relating to the appropriate standard 427 of support, education, and benefit for the protected person made by a parent or guardian, if any.
428 He may not be surcharged for sums paid to persons or organizations actually furnishing 429 support, education, or care to the protected person pursuant to the recommendations of a parent
430 or guardian of the protected person unless he knows that the parent or guardian is deriving

431 personal financial benefit therefrom, including relief from any personal duty of support, or 432 unless the recommendations are clearly not in the best interests of the protected person.

433 (b) The conservator is to expend or distribute sums reasonably necessary for the 434 support, education, care or benefit of the protected person with due regard to:

435 (i) the size of the estate, the probable duration of the conservatorship and the likelihood 436 that the protected person, at some future time, may be fully able to manage the protected 437 person's affairs and the estate which has been conserved for the protected person;

438 (ii) the accustomed standard of living of the protected person and members of the 439 protected person's household; and

440 (iii) other funds or sources used for the support of the protected person.

441 (c) The conservator may expend funds of the estate for the support of persons legally 442 dependent on the protected person and others who are members of the protected person's 443 household who are unable to support themselves and who are in need of support.

444 (d) Funds expended under this Subsection (1) may be paid by the conservator to any 445 person, including the protected person to reimburse for expenditures which the conservator 446 might have made, or in advance for services to be rendered to the protected person when it is 447 reasonable to expect that they will be performed and where advance payments are customary or 448 reasonably necessary under the circumstances.

449 (2) If the estate is ample to provide for the purposes implicit in the distributions
450 authorized by Subsection (1), a conservator for a protected person other than a minor has power 451 to make gifts to charity and other objects as the protected person might have been expected to 452 make, in amounts which do not exceed in total for any year 20% of the income from the estate.

453 (3) When a person who is a minor and who has not been adjudged to have a disability
454 under Subsection 75-5-401(2)(a) attains the age of majority, the person's conservator, after 455 meeting all prior claims and expenses of administration, shall pay over and distribute all funds 456 and properties to the former protected person as soon as possible.

457 (4) When the conservator is satisfied that a protected person's disability (other than 458 minority) has ceased, the conservator, after meeting all prior claims and expenses of 459 administration, shall pay over and distribute all funds and properties to the former protected 460 person as soon as possible.

461 (5) If a protected person dies, the conservator:

462 (a) shall:

463 (i) deliver to the court for safekeeping any will of the deceased protected person that 464 may have come into the conservator's possession[;];

465 (ii) inform the executor or a beneficiary named in the will that the conservator has done 466 so[;]; and

467 (iii) retain the estate for delivery to a duly appointed personal representative of the 468 decedent or other persons entitled to it[. ~~If after 40 days from the death of the protected person 469 no other person has been appointed personal representative and no application or petition for 470 appointment is before the court, the conservator];~~

471 (b) may continue to pay the obligations lawfully due against the estate and to protect 472 the estate from waste, injury, or damages that might reasonably be foreseeable; and

473 (c) may apply to exercise the powers and duties of a personal representative so that the 474 conservator may proceed to administer and distribute the decedent's estate without additional or 475 further appointment, provided that at least 40 days from the death of the protected person no 476 other person has been appointed personal representative and no application or petition for 477 appointment is before the court.

478 (6) Upon application for an order granting the powers of a personal representative to a
479 conservator[;] as provided in Subsection (5)(c) and after notice as provided in Section
480 75-3-310, the court may order the conferral of the power upon determining that there is no 481 objection and endorse the letters of the conservator to note that the formerly protected person is 482 deceased and that the conservator has acquired all of the powers and duties of a personal 483 representative. The making and entry of an order under this section shall have the effect of an 484 order of appointment of a personal representative as provided in Section 75-3-308 and Chapter
485 3, Parts 6 through 10, except that the estate in the name of the conservator, after administration, 486 may be distributed to the decedent's successors without prior retransfer to the conservator as 487 personal representative.

488 Section 15. Section 75-5-501 is amended to read:

489 75-5-501. Power of attorney not affected by disability or lapse of time -- Agent
490 responsibilities.

491 (1) Whenever a principal designates another as the principal's attorney-in-fact or agent
492 by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney

493 shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become 494 effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the 495 principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's 496 disability, the authority of the attorney-in-fact or agent is exercisable by the attorney-in-fact or 497 agent as provided in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding:

498 (a) later disability or incapacity of the principal at law or later uncertainty as to whether 499 the principal is dead or alive; or

500 (b) the lapse of time since the execution of the instrument, unless the instrument states 501 a time of termination.

502 (2) If an attorney-in-fact or agent determines that the principal has become 503 incapacitated or has acquired a disability and the power of attorney by its terms remains in 504 effect or becomes effective as a result of a principal's incapacity or disability, the 505 attorney-in-fact or agent shall:

506 (a) notify all interested persons of the attorney-in-fact's or agent's status as the power of 507 attorney holder within 30 days of the principal's incapacitation, and provide them with the 508 attorney-in-fact's or agent's name and address;

509 (b) provide to any interested persons upon written request, a copy of the power of 510 attorney;

511 (c) provide to any interested persons upon written request, an annual accounting of the 512 assets to which the power of attorney applies, unless the power of attorney specifically directs 513 that the attorney-in-fact or agent is not required to do so; and 514 (d) notify all interested persons upon the death of the principal.

515 (3) All interested persons shall be notified within 10 days if the attorney-in-fact or 516 agent changes. The notification shall be made by the new attorney-in-fact or agent who shall 517 then be accountable to the interested persons in accordance with Subsection (2).

518 (4) All acts done by the attorney-in-fact or agent pursuant to the power during any 519 period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive
520 have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or the principal's heirs, 521 devisees, and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent, and did not have 522 a disability, except as provided in Section 75-5-503.

523 (5) A conservator may be appointed for a principal even though the principal has a

524 valid power of attorney in place. If a conservator thereafter is appointed for the principal, the 525 attorney-in-fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the 526 conservator rather than the principal. The conservator, pursuant to court order [~~as provided in~~ 527 ~~Subsection 75-5-408(1)(d)~~], has the same power the principal would have had, if the principal 528 did not have a disability or was not incompetent, to revoke, suspend, or terminate all or any 529 part of the power of attorney or agency.

530 (6) For the purposes of this section, "interested person" means any person entitled to a 531 part of the principal's estate from the principal's will or through the intestacy laws, whichever is 532 applicable.
