23 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

24 Section 1. Section 23-19-43 is amended to read:

25 23-19-43. Wildlife Habitat Account -- Contents -- Use of fund money.

26 (1) There is created a restricted account within the General Fund known as the

27 "Wildlife Habitat Account."

28 (2) The contents of the account shall consist of:

29 (a) revenue from the sale of licenses, permits, stamps, certificates of registration, and

30 Wildlife Heritage certificates as provided in Section 23-19-47;

31 (b) money donated to the division for a purpose specified in Subsection (6); and

32 (c) interest and earnings on account money.

33 (3) Revenue from the sale of licenses, permits, stamps, certificates of registration, and

34 Wildlife Heritage certificates that is deposited to the account pursuant to Section 23-19-47

35 shall be used by the division, after appropriation by the Legislature, as provided in Subsections

36 (4) through (6).

37 (4) (a) Each year up to $70,000 or [~~4%~~] 10% of the annual deposits to the account,

38 whichever amount is greater, shall be allocated for the development, restoration, and

39 preservation of wetlands that are beneficial to waterfowl.

40 (b) Up to 20% of the money allocated to waterfowl projects may be appropriated by the

41 Legislature for use by a nonprofit conservation organization for wetland development projects

42 within the state that benefit waterfowl.

43 (5) (a) Each year up to $230,000 or [~~12~~] 10% of the annual deposits to the account,

44 whichever amount is greater, shall be allocated to upland game projects as follows:

45 (i) the control of predators;

46 (ii) the development, improvement, restoration, or maintenance of critical habitat

47 through the establishment of landowner incentives, cooperative programs, or other means;

48 (iii) the acquisition or preservation of critical habitat;

49 (iv) landowner habitat education and assistance programs;

50 (v) public access to private lands; and

51 (vi) upland game transplant and reintroduction programs.

52 (b) As used in this section "upland game" means pheasant, quail, chukar, partridge,

53 sage grouse, sharp-tailed grouse, Hungarian partridge, ruffed grouse, blue grouse, ptarmigan,

54 mourning dove, band-tailed pigeon, turkey, cottontail rabbit, or snowshoe hare.

55 (c) Money allocated to upland game may not be used for the acquisition, development,

56 improvement, restoration, or maintenance of habitat within commercial hunting areas.

57 (d) No more than 5% of the money allocated to upland game may be used for

58 landowner habitat education programs.

59 (e) The money allocated to upland game shall be used for programs and activities
60 relating to upland game species based generally upon the proportion of average annual hunter
61 participation for each species.

62 (f) Projects for which free public access is assured shall receive first priority for 63 funding from money allocated to upland game.

64 (g) Projects for which public access is assured shall receive second priority for funding
65 from money allocated to upland game.

66 (6) The remaining money in the account shall be used for the following purposes:

67 (a) the enhancement, acquisition, preservation, protection, and management of aquatic 68 and terrestrial wildlife habitat; and

69 (b) to improve access for fishing and hunting.

70 (7) The division shall seek the advice and recommendations of the Habitat Council,
71 created by the division, regarding the expenditure of account money.

72 (8) Donations of money deposited into the account and interest earned on that money
73 shall be expended:

74 (a) as directed by the donor; and

75 (b) without being appropriated by the Legislature.
