30	Section 1. Section 76-3-205 is amended to read:
31	76-3-205. Infraction conviction Fine, forfeiture, and disqualification.
32	(1) A person convicted of an infraction may not be imprisoned but may be subject to:
33	(a) a fine, which may include compensatory service as a method to satisfy the fine;
34	(b) forfeiture[, and];
35	(c) disqualification[;]; or
36	(d) any combination of the above.
37	(2) Compensatory service shall be considered in accordance with Section 76-3-301.7.
38	$\left[\frac{(2)}{(3)}\right]$ Whenever a person is convicted of an infraction and no punishment is
39	specified, the person may be fined as for a class C misdemeanor.
40	Section 2. Section 76-3-301.7 is enacted to read:
41	76-3-301.7. Compensatory service.
42	(1) As used in this section, "compensatory service" means service or unpaid work
43	performed by a person, in lieu of the payment of a criminal fine, for:
44	(a) a state or local government agency;
45	(b) an entity that is approved as a nonprofit organization under Section 501(c) of the
46	Internal Revenue Code; or
47	(c) any other entity or organization if prior approval is obtained from the court.
48	(2) When a defendant is sentenced to pay a fine for an infraction, class C or class B
49	misdemeanor, the court shall consider allowing the defendant to complete compensatory
50	service in lieu of the payment of the fine or account receivable, exclusive of any victim
51	restitution imposed.
52	(3) A defendant who intends to forfeit bail or who is ordered to pay a fine by the court
53	for an infraction, class C or class B misdemeanor, shall be informed by the court of the
54	opportunity to perform compensatory service in lieu of the fine or bail amount.
55	(4) The court shall credit timely completed compensatory service reported in
56	accordance with Subsection (5) against the fine or bail amount at the rate of $10 per hour and
57	shall allow the defendant a reasonable amount of time to complete the service

58	(5) (a) The court shall provide the defendant with instructions that inform the
59	organization:
60	(i) about the requirements in Subsection (5)(b); and
51	(ii) that making a written false statement to the court about the defendant's
52	compensatory service is punishable as a class B misdemeanor pursuant to Section 76-8-504.
63	(b) The defendant shall report compensatory service hours to the court in a letter that:
54	(i) is on the organization's official letterhead and includes contact information for the
65	organization's representative;
66	(ii) specifies the number of hours for which the defendant provided service;
67	(iii) contains a brief description of what the service involved; and
68	(iv) is signed by an authorized representative of the organization; or
59	(v) is in a form otherwise acceptable to the court.
70	(6) The court may refuse to accept compensatory service:
71	(a) completed prior to the date of sentencing;
72	(b) that has been submitted to another court for credit; or
73	(c) completed at an agency or organization or is a type of service that is specifically
74	prohibited by the court.
