30-3-37, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2010, Chapter 228

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

30 Section 1. Section 30-3-37 is amended to read:

31 30-3-37. Relocation.

32 (1) For purposes of this section, "relocation" means moving 150 miles or more from 33 the residence [~~specified in the court's decree~~] of the other parent.

34 (2) The relocating parent shall provide~~[, if possible,]~~ 60 days advance written notice of 35 the intended relocation to the other parent. The written notice of relocation shall contain 36 statements affirming the following:

37 (a) the parent-time provisions in Subsection (5) or a schedule approved by both parties
38 will be followed; and

39 (b) neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court
40 ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

41 (3) The court [~~may~~] shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion,
42 schedule a hearing with notice to review the notice of relocation and parent-time schedule as
43 provided in Section 30-3-35 and make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time and costs
44 for parent-time transportation.

45 (4) [~~In determining~~] In a hearing to review the notice of relocation, the court shall, in 46 determining if the relocation of a custodial parent is in the best interest of the child, consider
47 any other factors that the court considers relevant to the determination. If the court determines 48 that relocation is not in the best interest of the child, and the custodial parent relocates, the 49 court may order a change of custody.

50 (5) If the court finds that the relocation is in the best interest of the child, the court shall 51 determine the parent-time schedule and [allocating] allocate the transportation costs[~~, the~~] that 52 will be incurred for the child to visit the noncustodial parent. In making its determination, 53 court shall consider:

- 54 (a) the reason for the parent's relocation;
- 55 (b) the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;
- 56 (c) the economic resources of both parents; and
- 57 (d) other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.

58 [~~(5)~~] (6) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon the relocation, as defined in 59 Subsection (1), of one of the parties the following schedule shall be the minimum requirements
60 for parent-time with a school-age child:

61 (a) in years ending in an odd number, the child shall spend the following holidays with
62 the noncustodial parent:

63 (i) Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and

64 (ii) Spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until 65 the day before school resumes;

66 (b) in years ending in an even number, the child shall spend the following holidays
67 with the noncustodial parent:

68 (i) the entire winter school break period; and

69 (ii) the Fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the 70 day before school resumes;

71 (c) extended parent-time equal to 1/2 of the summer or off-track time for consecutive
72 weeks. The children should be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before 73 school begins; however, this week shall be counted when determining the amount of 74 parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period; and

75 (d) one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent.

76 [~~(6)~~] (7) The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the 77 following restrictions.

78 (a) If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time,
79 the noncustodial parent shall receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned
80 to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial 81 parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to the 82 next to the last weekend of the month.

83 (b) If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday
84 extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend shall be considered
85 the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

86 (c) If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the 87 children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection
88 ~~[(5)]~~ (6) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend
89 parent-time, those days shall be included in the weekend parent-time.

90 ~~[(7)]~~ (8) The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to
91 the noncustodial parent.

92 ~~[(8)]~~ (9) In the event finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum
93 parent-time for the noncustodial parent during the school year, the court should consider
94 awarding more time for the noncustodial parent during the summer time if it is in the best
95 interests of the children.

96 ~~[(9)]~~ (10) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order uninterrupted parent-time
97 with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 30 days during extended parent-time, unless the
98 court finds it is not in the best interests of the child. If the court orders uninterrupted
99 parent-time during a period not covered by this section, it shall specify in its order which parent
100 is responsible for the child's travel expenses.

101 ~~[(10)]~~ (11) Unless otherwise ordered by the court the relocating party shall be
102 responsible for all the child's travel expenses relating to Subsections ~~[(5)]~~ (6)(a) and (b) and 1/2
103 of the child's travel expenses relating to Subsection ~~[(5)]~~ (6)(c), provided the noncustodial
104 parent is current on all support obligations. If the noncustodial parent has been found in 105 contempt for not being current on all support obligations, the noncustodial parent shall be
106 responsible for all of the child's travel expenses under Subsection ~~[(5)]~~ (6), unless the court
107 rules otherwise. Reimbursement by either responsible party to the other for the child's travel
108 expenses shall be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

109 ~~[(11)]~~ (12) The court may apply this provision to any preexisting decree of divorce.

110 ~~[(12)]~~ (13) Any action under this section may be set for an expedited hearing.

111 ~~[(13)]~~ (14) A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation in Subsection (2)
112 shall be in contempt of the court's order.
