208 the judge may grant an additional 10 working days to resolve the alleged inaccuracies of the 209 report with the department. If after 10 working days the inaccuracies cannot be resolved, the

257 (10)(a)(i), there remains an unpaid balance upon the account receivable as defined in Section
258 76-3-201.1, the court may retain jurisdiction of the case and continue the defendant on bench
259 probation for the limited purpose of enforcing the payment of the account receivable. If the 260 court retains jurisdiction for this limited purpose, the court may order the defendant to pay to 261 the court the costs associated with continued probation under this Subsection (10).

262 (B) In accordance with Section 77-18-6, the court shall record in the registry of civil 263 judgments any unpaid balance not already recorded and immediately transfer responsibility to 264 collect the account to the Office of State Debt Collection.

265 (iii) Upon motion of the Office of State Debt Collection, prosecutor, victim, or upon its 266 own motion, the court may require the defendant to show cause why the defendant's failure to 267 pay should not be treated as contempt of court.

268 (b) (i) The department shall notify the sentencing court, the Office of State Debt
269 Collection, and the prosecuting attorney in writing in advance in all cases when termination of 270 supervised probation is being requested by the department or will occur by law.

271 (ii) The notification shall include a probation progress report and complete report of 272 details on outstanding accounts receivable.

273 (11) (a) (i) Any time served by a probationer outside of confinement after having been

275 constitute service of time toward the total probation term unless the probationer is exonerated
276 at a hearing to revoke the probation.

277 (ii) Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing or decision concerning
278 revocation of probation does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term
279 unless the probationer is exonerated at the hearing.

280 (iii) Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing or decision concerning 281 revocation of probation constitutes service of time toward a term of incarceration imposed as a
282 result of the revocation of probation or a graduated sanction imposed under Section
283 63M-7-404.

284 (b) The running of the probation period is tolled upon the filing of a violation report
285 with the court alleging a violation of the terms and conditions of probation or upon the issuance
286 of an order to show cause or warrant by the court.

287 (12) (a) (i) Probation may [~~not~~] be modified [~~or extended~~] as is consistent with the

290 by the probationer or upon a hearing and a finding in court that the probationer has violated the 291 conditions of probation.

292 (ii) Probation may not be revoked except upon a hearing in court and a finding that the 293 conditions of probation have been violated.

294 (b) (i) Upon the filing of an affidavit alleging with particularity facts asserted to 295 constitute violation of the conditions of probation, the court that authorized probation shall 296 determine if the affidavit establishes probable cause to believe that revocation, modification, or 297 extension of probation is justified.

298 (ii) If the court determines there is probable cause, it shall cause to be served on the 299 defendant a warrant for the defendant's arrest or a copy of the affidavit and an order to show
300 cause why the defendant's probation should not be revoked, modified, or extended.

301 (c) (i) The order to show cause shall specify a time and place for the hearing and shall 302 be served upon the defendant at least five days prior to the hearing.

303 (ii) The defendant shall show good cause for a continuance.

304 (iii) The order to show cause shall inform the defendant of a right to be represented by

306 (iv) The order shall also inform the defendant of a right to present evidence.

307 (d) (i) At the hearing, the defendant shall admit or deny the allegations of the affidavit.

308 (ii) If the defendant denies the allegations of the affidavit, the prosecuting attorney
309 shall present evidence on the allegations.

314 and present evidence.

315 (e) (i) After the hearing the court shall make findings of fact.

316 (ii) Upon a finding that the defendant violated the conditions of probation, the court
317 may order the probation revoked, modified, continued, or ~~[that the entire probation term~~
318 ~~commence anew]~~ reinstated for all or a portion of the original term of probation.

319 (iii) If a period of incarceration is imposed for a violation, the defendant shall be 320 sentenced within the guidelines established by the Utah Sentencing Commission pursuant to 321 Subsection 63M-7-404\(4\), unless the judge determines that:

322 (A) the defendant needs substance abuse or mental health treatment, as determined by a
323 validated risk and needs screening or assessment, that warrants treatment services that are 324 immediately available in the community; or

325 (B) the sentence previously imposed shall be executed.

326 (iv) If the defendant had, prior to the imposition of a term of incarceration or the 327 execution of the previously imposed sentence under this Subsection (12), served time in jail as 328 a condition of probation or due to a violation of probation under Subsection 77-18-1\(12\)\(e\)\(iii\),
329 the time the probationer served in jail constitutes service of time toward the sentence
330 previously imposed.

331 (13) The court may order the defendant to commit himself or herself to the custody of 332 the Division of Substance Abuse and Mental Health for treatment at the Utah State Hospital as 333 a condition of probation or stay of sentence, only after the superintendent of the Utah State
334 Hospital or the superintendent's designee has certified to the court that:

335 (a) the defendant is appropriate for and can benefit from treatment at the state hospital;

336 (b) treatment space at the hospital is available for the defendant; and

340 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act. Notwithstanding Sections
341 63G-2-403 and 63G-2-404, the State Records Committee may not order the disclosure of a 342 presentence investigation report. Except for disclosure at the time of sentencing pursuant to

349 authorized representative; or

350 (e) requested by the victim of the crime discussed in the presentence investigation
351 report or the victim's authorized representative, provided that the disclosure to the victim shall 352 include only information relating to statements or materials provided by the victim, to the 353 circumstances of the crime including statements by the defendant, or to the impact of the crime
354 on the victim or the victim's household.

356 the supervision of the department, except as provided in Sections 76-3-406 and 76-5-406.5.

357 (b) The department shall establish procedures and standards for home confinement, 358 including electronic monitoring, for all individuals referred to the department in accordance 359 with Subsection (16).

360 (16) (a) If the court places the defendant on probation under this section, it may order 361 the defendant to participate in home confinement through the use of electronic monitoring as 362 described in this section until further order of the court.

363 (b) The electronic monitoring shall alert the department and the appropriate law
364 enforcement unit of the defendant's whereabouts.

365 (c) The electronic monitoring device shall be used under conditions which require:

366 (i) the defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device at all times; and

367 (ii) that a device be placed in the home of the defendant, so that the defendant's
368 compliance with the court's order may be monitored.

369 (d) If a court orders a defendant to participate in home confinement through electronic 370 monitoring as a condition of probation under this section, it shall:

371 (i) place the defendant on probation under the supervision of the Department of 372 Corrections;

373 (ii) order the department to place an electronic monitoring device on the defendant and 374 install electronic monitoring equipment in the residence of the defendant; and

386 (2) The earned time program shall:

387 (a) provide not less than four months of earned time credit each for the completion of 388 [~~the highest ranked priority in the offender's case action plan;~~] up to two programs that:
