Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 9-7-313 is enacted to read:

30 9-7-313. Law library self-help center.

31 (1) The Utah State Law Library shall establish a statewide self-help center to assist
32 self-represented parties to achieve fair and efficient resolution of their cases.

33 (2) The self-help center shall be staffed or directed by persons admitted to the practice
34 of law in this state. Self-help center personnel may not represent parties or give legal advice.

35 (3) The self-help center shall provide to the public and all parties:

36 (a) information about:

37 (i) the availability of mediation services, and legal advice and representation through
38 pro bono legal services;

39 (ii) low cost legal services;

40 (iii) legal aid programs; and

41 (iv) lawyer referral services;

42 (b) information about resources provided by law libraries;

43 (c) court forms and instructions, and help completing forms;

44 (d) answers to questions about the law, court process, and options; and

45 (e) educational materials and other services consistent with the purpose of this statute
46 and the direction of the Judicial Council, including programs in other agencies and 47 organizations.
