78B-6-812, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2019, Chapter 136

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 78B-6-812 is amended to read:

28           78B-6-812. Order of restitution -- Service -- Enforcement -- Disposition of 29 personal property -- Hearing.

30           (1) An order of restitution shall:

31           (a) direct the defendant to vacate the premises, remove the defendant's personal
32 property, and restore possession of the premises to the plaintiff, or be forcibly removed by a
33 sheriff or constable;

34           (b) advise the defendant of the time limit set by the court for the defendant to vacate
35 the premises, which shall be three calendar days following service of the order, unless the court
36 determines that a longer or shorter period is appropriate after a finding of extenuating 37 circumstances; and

38           (c) advise the defendant of the defendant's right to a hearing to contest the manner of 39 its enforcement.

40           (2) (a) A copy of the order of restitution and a form for the defendant to request a
41 hearing as listed on the form shall be served in accordance with Section 78B-6-805 by a person
42 authorized to serve process pursuant to Subsection 78B-8-302(2).

43           (b) A request for hearing or other pleading filed by the defendant may not stay
44 enforcement of the restitution order unless:

45           (i) the defendant furnishes a corporate bond, cash bond, certified funds, or a property
46 bond to the clerk of the court in an amount approved by the court according to Subsection
47 78B-6-808(4)(b); and

48           (ii) the court orders that the restitution order be stayed.

49           (c) The date of service, the name, title, signature, and telephone number of the person
50 serving the order and the form shall be legibly endorsed on the copy of the order and the form
51 served on the defendant.

52           (d) The person serving the order and the form shall file proof of service in accordance 53 with Rule 4(e), Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

54           (3) (a) If the defendant fails to comply with the order within the time prescribed by the 55 court, a sheriff or constable at the plaintiff's direction may enter the premises by force using the 56 least destructive means possible to remove the defendant.

57           (b) (i) Personal property remaining in the leased property may be removed from the 58 premises by the sheriff or constable and transported to a suitable location for safe storage.

59           (ii) The sheriff or constable may delegate responsibility for inventory, moving, and 60 storage to the plaintiff, who shall store the personal property in a suitable place and in a
61 reasonable manner.

62           (c) A tenant may not access the property until the removal and storage costs have been
63 paid in full, except that the tenant shall be provided reasonable access within five business days
64 to retrieve:

65           (i) clothing;

66           (ii) identification;

67           (iii) financial documents, including all those related to the tenant's immigration status
68 or employment status;

69           (iv) documents pertaining to receipt of public services; and

70           (v) medical information, prescription medications, and any medical equipment required
71 for maintenance of medical needs.

72           (d) The personal property removed and stored is considered abandoned property and 73 subject to Section 78B-6-816.

74           (4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4): "Companion animal" means a domestic dog, cat,
75 rabbit, bird, or other animal that is kept solely as a pet and is not a production animal.

76           (b) (i) "Production animal" means a live, nonhuman vertebrate member of the 77 biological kingdom Animalia used for the purpose of producing, or being sold to another for
