CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ON HOLOCAUST EDUCATION
2021 GENERAL SESSION
STATE OF UTAH
Chief Sponsor: Evan J. Vickers
House Sponsor: Doug Owens
LONG TITLE
General Description:
This resolution highlights the importance of Holocaust and genocide education and encourages the State Board of Education and local education agencies to emphasize the importance of this course of study.
Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:
<ul> <li>describes the components of Holocaust and genocide education;</li> </ul>
• explains the importance of Holocaust and genocide education for students, schools, and communities; and
<ul> <li>encourages the State Board of Education and local education agencies to provide</li> </ul>
Holocaust and genocide education.
Special Clauses:
None
Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:
WHEREAS, to counteract and defend humanity against unspeakable acts, we must speak of and learn from past atrocities;
WHEREAS, "Holocaust" means the systemic, bureaucratic, state-sponsored persecution and murder of approximately 6,000,000 Jews and 5,000,000 other individuals by the Nazi regime and its collaborators;
WHEREAS, the term genocide was coined specifically to describe the unfathomable depth and breadth of atrocities perpetrated during the Holocaust;

30	WHEREAS, it is essential to provide students with knowledge of the Holocaust and
31	other genocides to help them make informed choices as citizens and to help root out despicable
32	acts of hatred, anti-Semitism, and other forms of prejudice;
33	WHEREAS, the study of the Holocaust and other genocides within the context of
34	geography, history, and political systems provides students with essential learning experiences,
35	helping students to:
36	<ul> <li>understand the root causes, consequences, and ramifications of prejudice,</li> </ul>
37	racism, stereotyping, and discrimination;
38	• confront the issues of moral dilemmas and conflicts of conscience posed by the
39	Holocaust and other genocides;
40	▶ learn how the Holocaust contributed to the need for the term "genocide" and led
41	to international legislation that recognized genocide as a crime; and
42	<ul> <li>contextualize and illuminate patterns of human behavior by individuals and</li> </ul>
43	groups and their choices of roles, including perpetrator, collaborator, bystander,
44	victim, resister, and rescuer;
45	WHEREAS, the study of the Holocaust and other genocides also sharply illustrates the
46	responsibilities of citizens in democratic societies to combat misinformation, indifference, and
47	discrimination through tools of resistance such as protest, reform, and free and fair elections;
48	WHEREAS, Holocaust and genocide education encourages students to develop
49	empathy and reaffirms the commitment of free people to never again allow genocides to occur;
50	WHEREAS, Holocaust education teaches universal lessons including: world history,
51	fascism, extremism, the fragility of democracy, the history of the Jewish people, human
52	capacity for the immorality, scapegoating and stereotyping, the role of perpetrators and
53	bystanders, the importance of empathy, diversity, and efforts toward justice;
54	WHEREAS, Holocaust and genocide education can help nurture and protect democratic
55	values and institutions;
56	WHEREAS, the study of these topics can lead students to examine what it means to be
57	a responsible and respectful person and to understand the personal responsibility that all people have to fight racism and hatred whenever and wherever it happens; and

WHEREAS, the life lessons that students can learn from the study of the Holocaust and other genocides are transferable and beneficial in many areas of study, and these life lessons are central to the State Board of Education's mission and vision of public education:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, encourages the State Board of Education to continue its practice of adopting K-12 social studies standards that include the study of the Holocaust and other genocides at grade levels appropriate for such study, and in all other subject area standards as suitable.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that every local education agency should include instruction on the Holocaust - including the systematic, planned annihilation of European Jews and other groups by Nazi Germany and its collaborators - and other genocides for all elementary and secondary school pupils with age-appropriate materials included in the curriculum.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor encourage the State Board of Education and local education agencies to continue providing and promoting professional learning activities for educators that include evidence-based pedagogical practices and access to high-quality teacher resources for providing instruction about the Holocaust and other genocides.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor encourage local education agencies and educators to use and disseminate instructional best practices and high-quality curricula of appropriate lengths and complexities - coordinated across grade levels and subject areas whenever possible - across the state that could form the basis for a Holocaust and Genocide Studies secondary elective course.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor encourage parents and families to reinforce the important lessons learned from this study by promoting civic virtues and beneficial character qualities.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor encourage community stakeholders, including parents, to continue collaborating with their local K-12 education systems to assess their needs for providing instruction on the Holocaust and other genocides, including: creating an appropriate informational website, promoting appropriate speakers, developing instructional resources, and conducting a teacher needs assessment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and Governor encourage institutions of higher education in the state to continue and expand programming for study, reflection, remembrance, and action around issues related to the Holocaust and other genocides.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor recognize the importance of Holocaust and genocide education in helping the citizens of Utah to unite and to clearly and forcefully resolve that such atrocities will never be repeated.
