17 Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

18           WHEREAS, to further the state's interest in public health, to reduce underage smoking, 19 and to promote tobacco prevention education, the state sued several large tobacco 20 manufacturers stating claims for monetary, equitable, and injunctive relief under state 21 consumer protection and antitrust laws in State of Utah v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, et 22 al., Civil No. 2:96-CV-0829;

23           WHEREAS, in November 1998, through its elected attorney general, the state of Utah, 24 45 other states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and four 25 territories entered into a Master Settlement Agreement resolving all tobacco-related claims;

26           WHEREAS, since that time the state has been performing its obligations under the 27 terms of the settlement, which terms have now been restated;

28           WHEREAS, the state will endeavor to accept the restated terms, including the 29 transition period and any other terms that the attorney general considers warranted;

30 WHEREAS, the restated terms will result in a net financial benefit to the state, namely:

31 ▶ in April 2018, the state will receive its regularly scheduled tobacco master 32 settlement payment in the approximate amount of $28,000,000, plus an 33 additional approximate payment of $28,000,000; and

34 ▶ between 2018 and 2027 the state will receive substantial additional settlement 35 payments in the approximate amount of $298,000,000; and

36 WHEREAS, as with the terms of the original settlement agreement and in exchange for 37 those sums, the state of Utah will continue to diligently enforce the original and restated terms 38 of the settlement agreement, such actions being in the state's best interest:

39 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah 40 acknowledges and agrees with the restated terms and updated settlement, including all 41 additional terms the attorney general considers warranted under the circumstances, and fully 42 supports the attorney general signing the Term Sheet.
