11          members of the officer's command disciplines authorized under subdivisions

13          (e) The Adjutant and Inspector General may impose upon officers and

17               (2) for members who are serving on full-time military orders in excess 18               of 179 days, the forfeiture of not more than one-half of one month's pay per

20          (f) Whenever any of those imposed disciplines are to be served 21          consecutively, the total length of the combined discipline cannot exceed the

2 be an apportionment of disciplines so that no single discipline in the 3 combination exceeds its authorized length.

4 (g) The officer who imposes the discipline or the successor in command 5 may at any time suspend, set aside, mitigate, or remit any part or amount of the 6 discipline and restore all rights, privileges, and property affected. The officer 7 also may mitigate reduction in grade to forfeiture of pay.

8 (h) The mitigated discipline shall not be for a greater period than the 9 original discipline mitigated. When mitigating reduction in grade to forfeiture 10 of pay, the amount of the forfeiture shall not be greater than the amount that 11 could have been imposed initially under this section by the officer who 12 imposed the discipline.

13 (i) A person punished under this section may appeal to the next superior 14 authority within 15 days after the discipline is either announced or sent to the 15 accused, as the commander may determine. The appeal shall be promptly 16 forwarded and decided, but the person punished may, in the meantime, be 17 required to undergo the discipline adjudged. The superior authority may 18 exercise the same powers with respect to the discipline imposed as may be 19 exercised under subsection (g) of this section by the officer who imposed the 20 discipline. Before acting on an appeal, the authority may refer the case to a 21 judge advocate for consideration and advice.

1       (j) The imposition and enforcement of discipline under this section for any 2       act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial or a civilian court of 3       competent jurisdiction for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same
4       act or omission and not properly punishable under this section. The fact that a 5       discipline has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial and,
6       when so shown, it shall be considered in determining the measure of discipline
7       to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty.

8       (k) Whenever a discipline of forfeiture of pay is imposed under this 9       section, the forfeiture may apply to pay accruing before, on, or after the date 10       that discipline is imposed.

11       (l)(1) An individual subject to discipline under this section may elect to 12       have his or her case heard before a nonjudicial discipline panel. The 13       commanding officer shall notify the individual, verbally and in writing, of the 14       following:

15               (A) the nature of the alleged wrongdoing;

21       disposition by the panel.

(3) The panel shall consist of three members, appointed by the commander's next higher authority. The members of the panel shall be officers who are senior to the individual requesting the panel. If it is an enlisted member requesting the panel, there shall be at least one enlisted member on the panel but the member must be senior to the enlisted member requesting the panel. ~~If the individual requesting the panel is female, at least one member of the panel shall be female.~~ The individual requesting the panel may request that at least one member of the panel be of the same sex as the individual and the request shall be honored unless there is no qualified person of the same sex as the individual to serve on the panel. The senior member shall be the chair. The most junior member shall be the recorder and shall record summaries of the proceedings. However, if the nonjudicial discipline is being offered by a general officer, the panel shall consist of three members appointed by the Adjutant and Inspector General with the most senior member being the chair and the most junior member being the recorder, who shall record the summaries of the proceedings.

1           (4) The panel decision shall be by majority vote. The panel has the 2           same authority and responsibility in conducting the proceeding and disposing 3           of the matter, including imposing nonjudicial discipline, as has a field grade
4           officer pursuant to this section. The panel shall forward its recommendation 5           for disposition and imposition of discipline, if any, to the appointing authority.

1 The appointing authority shall approve the recommended discipline or any part 2 or amount as the appointing authority sees fit and may suspend, mitigate, or 3 remit as he or she deems appropriate. The appointing authority may not 4 approve any discipline in excess of that approved by the panel.

5 (5) The procedural requirements for a nonjudicial hearing and its 6 disposition by the panel shall be the same as would otherwise be applicable for 7 disposition by the commanding officer, including the individual's right to 8 counsel, to submit matters in extenuation, mitigation, or defense, and to call 9 and examine witnesses, to the extent witnesses are reasonably available.

10 (6) Appeals from the decision of the appointing authority may be taken 11 directly to the next higher authority to act upon appeal as set forth in this 12 section with respect to nonjudicial discipline appeals generally, unless the 13 action is initiated by a general officer, in which case the Adjutant and Inspector 14 General shall have the final decision.
