2 Introduced by Committee on Judiciary

3 Date:

4 Subject: Domestic relations; civil marriage; civil unions

5 Statement of purpose: This bill proposes to provide, upon application, an 6 expedited process for dissolving the civil union of a couple upon their marriage 7 to one another and to provide access to a divorce or a dissolution to 8 nonresident couples who established a marriage or civil union in Vermont if 9 the parties are legally barred from divorcing or dissolving the union in their 10 state of residence, provided that the parties file a stipulation outlining an 11 agreement executed by both parties that sets out the terms and conditions of 12 resolution for all issues in the divorce or dissolution action.

13 An act relating to divorce and dissolution proceedings

14 It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont:

15 Sec. 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT

16 (a) On July 1, 2000, Vermont became the first state to provide same-sex 17 couples the opportunity to obtain the same benefits and protections afforded by 18 state law to married opposite-sex couples by enacting civil unions. In 2009, 19 Vermont extended the right to establish a civil marriage to same-sex couples.

1 (b) Today, the United States is a patchwork of laws regarding the 2 recognition of legally joined same-sex couples. While several states now 3 recognize civil unions and same-sex marriage, most do not.

4 (c) Vermont law requires a person to have resided in Vermont for at least 5 six months prior to filing a complaint for an annulment, divorce, or dissolution 6 of a civil union. This long-standing rule is commonplace among the states and 7 prevents parties from choosing a jurisdiction most likely to provide a favorable 8 judgment. However, while an opposite-sex out-of-state couple who marries in 9 Vermont can get divorced in the state of residence of either party, most 10 same-sex out-of-state couples joined in a Vermont civil union or marriage do
11 not have this option. Thus, there are many same-sex couples who established a 12 civil union or married in Vermont who are no longer together, yet they 13 continue to be legally bound with no recourse other than moving to Vermont 14 and becoming residents.

15 (d) It is the intent of the general assembly in this act to provide access to a 16 civil union dissolution or a divorce to nonresident couples joined in a Vermont 17 civil union or Vermont marriage who are legally barred from dissolving the 18 union in their state of residence, provided that the parties file a stipulation 19 outlining an agreement executed by both parties that sets out the terms and 20 conditions of resolution for all issues in the dissolution or divorce action. The

1 provisions of this act pertaining to a divorce for nonresident couples shall 2 apply to both same-sex and opposite-sex couples.

3 Sec. 2. 15 V.S.A. § 592 is amended to read:

4 § 592. RESIDENCE

5 (a) A complaint for divorce or annulment of civil marriage may be brought 6 if either party to the marriage has resided within the state for a period of six 7 months or more, but a divorce shall not be decreed for any cause, unless the 8 plaintiff or the defendant has resided in the state one year next preceding the 9 date of final hearing. Temporary absence from the state because of illness, 10 employment without the state, service as a member of the armed forces of the 11 United States, or other legitimate and bona fide cause shall not affect the six 12 months' period or the one-year period specified in the preceding sentence, 13 provided the person has otherwise retained residence in this state.

14 (b) Notwithstanding provisions to the contrary, a complaint for divorce 15 may be filed in the family division of superior court in the county in which the 16 marriage certificate was filed by parties who are not residents of Vermont

7 may be incorporated into a final order of divorce.

9 that bring the matter before the court's jurisdiction.

12 issue related to the divorce before a Vermont court, one of the parties must 15 proceeding between the parties.

17 the marriage.

19 Vermont marriage for purposes of divorce.

20 (v) each party has entered into the stipulation freely and 21 voluntarily.

1 (vi) the parties have exchanged all financial information, including
2 income, assets, and liabilities.

3 (c) The court shall waive a final hearing on any divorce action filed 4 pursuant to subsection (b) of this section unless the court determines upon 5 review of the complaint and stipulation that the filing is incomplete or that a 6 hearing is warranted for the purpose of clarifying a provision of the stipulation.
7 Final uncontested hearings in a nonresident divorce action shall be conducted 8 by telephone unless one or both of the parties choose to appear in person.
