(H.C.R.250)

Offered by: Representative Patt of Worcester

Whereas, pharmacists constitute an essential component of the health care delivery system, and

Whereas, Vermonters need ready access to prescribed and over-the-counter medications, and

Whereas, a primary source for Vermonters to access these medications is through licensed pharmacists, many of whom are employed at community-, hospital-, and health center-based pharmacies, and

Whereas, pharmacists frequently provide consumers with important information and guidance regarding the proper use of medication, and

Whereas, the Doctor of Pharmacy degree, which is now offered in Vermont, affords aspiring pharmacists excellent academic preparation, and

Whereas, today's pharmacists are well trained to help keep Vermonters healthy, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives:
