Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

HB 1911 amends RCW 2.70.020 and adds a new section to Chapter 2.70 RCW. The Office of Public Defense (OPD) assumes that HB 1911 will not obligate the agency to any new duties and will have no fiscal impact.

Section 1 of the bill amends RCW 2.70.020 to delete existing language that prohibits OPD from providing direct representation of clients.

Section 2 creates a new section in Chapter 2.70 RCW.

Section 2(1) provides that OPD shall not provide direct representation of clients, except under certain enumerated circumstances.

Section 2(2) provides that OPD managing attorneys and supervising attorneys may engage in short-term coverage for telephonic or video consultation services if an OPD-contracted attorney is not available to take a call. Any such coverage will comply with relevant ethics rules and agency policies.

Section 2(3) provides that OPD may coordinate with law schools to facilitate and supervise placement of law clerks, externs, and interns with OPD-contracted attorneys, consistent with relevant rules and agency policies.

Section 2(4) provides that OPD employees may provide pro bono services, consistent with relevant ethics rules and agency policies.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

HB 1911 concerns the activities of the Office of Public Defense. Section 2 of this bill would enable the Office to coordinate with law schools to facilitate and supervise the placement of law clerks, externs, and interns. The University of Washington's School of Law already works with other organizations to place students in internships, and we assume that nothing would change under the provisions of this bill. Therefore, we do not anticipate this bill to have a fiscal impact on the University.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.
