State of Washington 66th Legislature 2019 Regular Session

By House Innovation, Technology & Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Kloba, Dolan, Tarleton, Slatter, Valdez, Ryu, Appleton, Smith, Stanford, and Frame; by request of Attorney General)

READ FIRST TIME 02/08/19.

AN ACT Relating to breach of security systems protecting personal information; amending RCW 19.255.010 and 42.56.590; adding new sections to chapter 19.255 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 42.56 RCW; and providing an effective date.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 19.255 7 RCW to read as follows:

8 The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter 9 unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

10 (1) "Breach of the security of the system" means unauthorized 11 acquisition of data that compromises the security, confidentiality, 12 or integrity of personal information maintained by the person or 13 business. Good faith acquisition of personal information by an 14 employee or agent of the person or business for the purposes of the person or business is not a breach of the security of the system when 15 16 personal information is not used or subject to further the 17 unauthorized disclosure.

(2)(a) "Personal information" means:

(i) An individual's first name or first initial and last name incombination with any one or more of the following data elements:

21 (A) Social security number;

1 (B) Driver's license number or Washington identification card
2 number;

3 (C) Account number or credit or debit card number, in combination 4 with any required security code, access code, or password that would 5 permit access to an individual's financial account, or any other 6 numbers or information that can be used to access a person's 7 financial account;

(D) Full date of birth;

9 (E) Private key that is unique to an individual and that is used 10 to authenticate or sign an electronic record;

11

(F) Student, military, or passport identification number;

12 (G) Health insurance policy number or health insurance 13 identification number;

(H) Any information about a consumer's medical history or mental or physical condition or about a health care professional's medical diagnosis or treatment of the consumer; or

(I) Biometric data generated by automatic measurements of an individual's biological characteristics such as a fingerprint, voiceprint, eye retinas, irises, or other unique biological patterns or characteristics that is used to identify a specific individual;

(ii) Username or email address in combination with a password or security questions and answers that would permit access to an online account; and

(iii) Any of the data elements or any combination of the data elements described in (a)(i) of this subsection without the consumer's first name or first initial and last name if:

(A) Encryption, redaction, or other methods have not rendered thedata element or combination of data elements unusable; and

(B) The data element or combination of data elements would enablea person to commit identity theft against a consumer.

31 (b) Personal information does not include publicly available 32 information that is lawfully made available to the general public 33 from federal, state, or local government records.

(3) "Secured" means encrypted in a manner that meets or exceeds the national institute of standards and technology standard or is otherwise modified so that the personal information is rendered unreadable, unusable, or undecipherable by an unauthorized person.

38 Sec. 2. RCW 19.255.010 and 2015 c 64 s 2 are each amended to 39 read as follows:

1 (1) Any person or business that conducts business in this state and that owns or licenses data that includes personal information 2 shall disclose any breach of the security of the system ((following 3 discovery or notification of the breach in the security of the data)) 4 to any resident of this state whose personal information was, or is 5 6 reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person and the personal information was not secured. Notice is not required 7 if the breach of the security of the system is not reasonably likely 8 to subject consumers to a risk of harm. The breach of secured 9 personal information must be disclosed if the information acquired 10 and accessed is not secured during a security breach or if the 11 12 confidential process, encryption key, or other means to decipher the secured information was acquired by an unauthorized person. 13

14 (2) Any person or business that maintains or possesses data that 15 may include((s)) personal information that the person or business 16 does not own or license shall notify the owner or licensee of the 17 information of any breach of the security of the data immediately 18 following discovery, if the personal information was, or is 19 reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person.

(3) The notification required by this section may be delayed if the data owner or licensee contacts a law enforcement agency after discovery of a breach of the security of the system and a law enforcement agency determines that the notification will impede a criminal investigation. The notification required by this section shall be made after the law enforcement agency determines that it will not compromise the investigation.

27 (4) ((For purposes of this section, "breach of the security of 28 the system" means unauthorized acquisition of data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information 29 30 maintained by the person or business. Good faith acquisition of 31 personal information by an employee or agent of the person or 32 business for the purposes of the person or business is not a breach of the security of the system when the personal information is not 33 34 used or subject to further unauthorized disclosure.

35 (5) For purposes of this section, "personal information" means an 36 individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination 37 with any one or more of the following data elements:

(a) Social security number;

39 (b) Driver's license number or Washington identification card 40 number; or 1 (c) Account number or credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would 2 permit access to an individual's financial account. 3

(6) For purposes of this section, "personal information" does not 4 include publicly available information that is lawfully made 5 6 available to the general public from federal, state, or local 7 government records.

(7) For purposes of this section, "secured" means encrypted in a 8 manner that meets or exceeds the national institute of standards and 9 technology (NIST) standard or is otherwise modified so that the 10 personal information is rendered unreadable, unusable, or 11 12 undecipherable by an unauthorized person.

(8))) For purposes of this section and except under subsection((s 13 14 (9) and (10))) (5) of this section and section 3 of this act, ((-)) notice((-)) may be provided by one of the following methods: 15

(a) Written notice;

17 (b) Electronic notice, if the notice provided is consistent with 18 the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth in 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001; ((or)) 19

(c) Substitute notice, if the person or business demonstrates 20 21 that the cost of providing notice would exceed two hundred fifty 22 thousand dollars, or that the affected class of subject persons to be 23 notified exceeds five hundred thousand, or the person or business does not have sufficient contact information. Substitute notice shall 24 25 consist of all of the following:

26 (i) Email notice when the person or business has an email address for the subject persons; 27

28 (ii) Conspicuous posting of the notice on the web site page of 29 the person or business, if the person or business maintains one; and 30

(iii) Notification to major statewide media; or

31 (d) (i) If the breach of the security of the system involves 32 personal information including a user name or password, notice may be provided electronically or by email. The notice must comply with 33 subsections (6), (7), and (8) of this section and must inform the 34 person whose personal information has been breached to promptly 35 change his or her password and security question or answer, as 36 applicable, or to take other appropriate steps to protect the online 37 account with the person or business and all other online accounts for 38 39 which the person whose personal information has been breached uses 1 the same user name or email address and password or security question

2 or answer;

3 (ii) However, when the breach of the security of the system involves login credentials of an email account furnished by the 4 person or business, the person or business may not provide the 5 6 notification to that email address, but must provide notice using another method described in this subsection (4). The notice must 7 comply with subsections (6), (7), and (8) of this section and must 8 inform the person whose personal information has been breached to 9 10 promptly change his or her password and security question or answer, 11 as applicable, or to take other appropriate steps to protect the online account with the person or business and all other online 12 13 accounts for which the person whose personal information has been breached uses the same user name or email address and password or 14 15 security question or answer.

16 (((9))) (5) A person or business that maintains its own 17 notification procedures as part of an information security policy for 18 the treatment of personal information and is otherwise consistent 19 with the timing requirements of this section is in compliance with 20 the notification requirements of this section if the person or 21 business notifies subject persons in accordance with its policies in 22 the event of a breach of security of the system.

23 (((10) A covered entity under the federal health insurance 24 portability and accountability act of 1996, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1320d et 25 seq., is deemed to have complied with the requirements of this 26 section with respect to protected health information if it has complied with section 13402 of the federal health information 27 28 technology for economic and clinical health act, Public Law 111-5 as it existed on July 24, 2015. Covered entities shall notify the 29 30 attorney general pursuant to subsection (15) of this section in compliance with the timeliness of notification requirements of 31 section 13402 of the federal health information technology for 32 economic and clinical health act, Public Law 111-5 as it existed on 33 July 24, 2015, notwithstanding the notification requirement in 34 35 subsection (16) of this section.

36 (11) A financial institution under the authority of the office of 37 the comptroller of the currency, the federal deposit insurance 38 corporation, the national credit union administration, or the federal 39 reserve system is deemed to have complied with the requirements of 40 this section with respect to "sensitive customer information" as

1 defined in the interagency guidelines establishing information security standards, 12 C.F.R. Part 30, Appendix B, 12 C.F.R. Part 2 208, Appendix D-2, 12 C.F.R. Part 225, Appendix F, and 12 C.F.R. Part 3 364, Appendix B, and 12 C.F.R. Part 748, Appendices A and B, as they 4 existed on July 24, 2015, if the financial institution provides 5 6 notice to affected consumers pursuant to the interagency guidelines and the notice complies with the customer notice provisions of the 7 interagency guidelines establishing information security 8 standards and the interagency guidance on response programs for 9 10 unauthorized access to customer information and customer notice under 12 C.F.R. Part 364 as it existed on July 24, 2015. The entity shall 11 notify the attorney general pursuant to subsection (15) of this 12 section in addition to providing notice to its primary federal 13 14 regulator.

15 (12) Any waiver of the provisions of this section is contrary to 16 public policy, and is void and unenforceable.

17 (13) (a) Any consumer injured by a violation of this section may 18 institute a civil action to recover damages.

19 (b) Any person or business that violates, proposes to violate, or 20 has violated this section may be enjoined.

21 (c) The rights and remedies available under this section are 22 cumulative to each other and to any other rights and remedies 23 available under law.

24 (14))) (6) Any person or business that is required to issue 25 notification pursuant to this section shall meet all of the following 26 requirements:

(a) The notification must be written in plain language; and

(b) The notification must include, at a minimum, the following information:

30 (i) The name and contact information of the reporting person or 31 business subject to this section;

32 (ii) A list of the types of personal information that were or are 33 reasonably believed to have been the subject of a breach; ((and))

34 (iii) A time frame of exposure, if known, including the date of 35 the breach and the date of the discovery of the breach; and

36 (iv) The toll-free telephone numbers and addresses of the major 37 credit reporting agencies if the breach exposed personal information.

38 (((15))) (7) Any person or business that is required to issue a 39 notification pursuant to this section to more than five hundred 40 Washington residents as a result of a single breach shall((, by the) time notice is provided to affected consumers, electronically submit a single sample copy of that security breach notification, excluding any personally identifiable information, to the attorney general)) notify the attorney general of the breach no more than thirty days after the breach was discovered.

6 (a) The ((person or business)) notice to the attorney general
7 shall ((also provide to the attorney general)) include the following
8 information:

9 (i) The number of Washington consumers affected by the breach, or 10 an estimate if the exact number is not known;

11 (ii) A list of the types of personal information that were or are 12 reasonably believed to have been the subject of a breach;

13 (iii) A time frame of exposure, if known, including the date of 14 the breach and the date of the discovery of the breach;

15 (iv) A summary of steps taken to contain the breach; and

16 (v) A single sample copy of the security breach notification,
17 excluding any personally identifiable information.

18 (b) The notice to the attorney general must be updated if any of 19 the information identified in (a) of this subsection is unknown at 20 the time notice is due.

21 ((((16))) (8) Notification to affected consumers ((and to the attorney general)) under this section must be made in the most 22 23 expedient time possible ((and)), without unreasonable delay, and no more than ((forty-five)) thirty calendar days after the breach was 24 25 discovered, unless the delay is at the request of law enforcement as provided in subsection (3) of this section, or the delay is due to 26 27 any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and 28 restore the reasonable integrity of the data system.

29 (((17) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state, or as parens patriae on behalf of persons residing in the 30 31 state, to enforce this section. For actions brought by the attorney general to enforce this section, the legislature finds that the 32 practices covered by this section are matters vitally affecting the 33 34 public interest for the purpose of applying the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. For actions brought by the attorney general 35 to enforce this section, a violation of this section is not 36 reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of 37 business and is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce and 38 39 an unfair method of competition for purposes of applying the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. An action to enforce this section may not be brought under RCW 19.86.090.)

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 19.255
4 RCW to read as follows:

5 (1) A covered entity under the federal health insurance portability and accountability act of 1996, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1320d et 6 seq., is deemed to have complied with the requirements of this 7 chapter with respect to protected health information if it has 8 complied with section 13402 of the federal health information 9 technology for economic and clinical health act, P.L. 111-5 as it 10 existed on July 24, 2015. Covered entities shall notify the attorney 11 general pursuant to RCW 19.255.010(7) in compliance with the 12 timeliness of notification requirements of section 13402 of the 13 federal health information technology for economic and clinical 14 15 health act, P.L. 111-5 as it existed on July 24, 2015, 16 notwithstanding the timeline in RCW 19.255.010(7).

(2) A financial institution under the authority of the office of 17 the comptroller of the currency, the federal deposit insurance 18 corporation, the national credit union administration, or the federal 19 20 reserve system is deemed to have complied with the requirements of 21 this chapter with respect to "sensitive customer information" as 22 defined in the interagency guidelines establishing information security standards, 12 C.F.R. Part 30, Appendix B, 12 C.F.R. Part 23 24 208, Appendix D-2, 12 C.F.R. Part 225, Appendix F, and 12 C.F.R. Part 25 364, Appendix B, and 12 C.F.R. Part 748, Appendices A and B, as they existed on July 24, 2015, if the financial institution provides 26 27 notice to affected consumers pursuant to the interagency guidelines 28 and the notice complies with the customer notice provisions of the interagency guidelines establishing information security standards 29 30 and the interagency guidance on response programs for unauthorized 31 access to customer information and customer notice under 12 C.F.R. Part 364 as it existed on July 24, 2015. The entity shall notify the 32 attorney general pursuant to RCW 19.255.010 in addition to providing 33 notice to its primary federal regulator. 34

35 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 19.255 36 RCW to read as follows:

37 (1) Any waiver of the provisions of this chapter is contrary to38 public policy, and is void and unenforceable.

p. 8

1 (2) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state, or as parens patriae on behalf of persons residing in the 2 state, to enforce this chapter. For actions brought by the attorney 3 general to enforce this chapter, the legislature finds that the 4 practices covered by this chapter are matters vitally affecting the 5 6 public interest for the purpose of applying the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. For actions brought by the attorney general 7 to enforce this chapter, a violation of this chapter is not 8 reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of 9 business and is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce and 10 11 an unfair method of competition for purposes of applying the consumer 12 protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. An action to enforce this chapter may not be brought under RCW 19.86.090. 13

14 (3) (a) Any consumer injured by a violation of this chapter may 15 institute a civil action to recover damages.

16 (b) Any person or business that violates, proposes to violate, or 17 has violated this chapter may be enjoined.

18 (c) The rights and remedies available under this chapter are 19 cumulative to each other and to any other rights and remedies 20 available under law.

21 Sec. 5. RCW 42.56.590 and 2015 c 64 s 3 are each amended to read 22 as follows:

(1)(((-))) Any agency that owns or licenses data that includes 23 24 personal information shall disclose any breach of the security of the 25 system ((following discovery or notification of the breach in the security of the data)) to any resident of this state whose personal 26 information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by 27 28 an unauthorized person and the personal information was not secured. Notice is not required if the breach of the security of the system is 29 30 not reasonably likely to subject consumers to a risk of harm. The 31 breach of secured personal information must be disclosed if the information acquired and accessed is not secured during a security 32 breach or if the confidential process, encryption key, or other means 33 to decipher the secured information was acquired by an unauthorized 34 35 person.

36 (((b) For purposes of this section, "agency" means the same as in 37 RCW 42.56.010.))

38 (2) Any agency that maintains or possesses data that may 39 include((s)) personal information that the agency does not own or

p. 9

license shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of the security of the data immediately following discovery, if the personal information was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person.

5 (3) The notification required by this section may be delayed if 6 the data owner or licensee contacts a law enforcement agency after 7 discovery of a breach of the security of the system and a law 8 enforcement agency determines that the notification will impede a 9 criminal investigation. The notification required by this section 10 shall be made after the law enforcement agency determines that it 11 will not compromise the investigation.

(4) ((For purposes of this section, "breach of the security of 12 the system" means unauthorized acquisition of data that compromises 13 the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information 14 maintained by the agency. Good faith acquisition of personal 15 16 information by an employee or agent of the agency for the purposes of 17 the agency is not a breach of the security of the system when the personal information is not used or subject to further unauthorized 18 19 disclosure.

20 (5) For purposes of this section, "personal information" means an 21 individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination 22 with any one or more of the following data elements:

(a) Social security number;

24 (b) Driver's license number or Washington identification card 25 number; or

26 (c) Full account number, credit or debit card number, or any 27 required security code, access code, or password that would permit 28 access to an individual's financial account.

29 (6) For purposes of this section, "personal information" does not 30 include publicly available information that is lawfully made 31 available to the general public from federal, state, or local 32 government records.

33 (7) For purposes of this section, "secured" means encrypted in a 34 manner that meets or exceeds the national institute of standards and 35 technology (NIST) standard or is otherwise modified so that the 36 personal information is rendered unreadable, unusable, or 37 undecipherable by an unauthorized person.

38 (8)) For purposes of this section and except under subsection((s 39 (9) and (10))) (5) of this section and section 6 of this act, notice 40 may be provided by one of the following methods: 1

(a) Written notice;

2 (b) Electronic notice, if the notice provided is consistent with 3 the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth 4 in 15 U.S.C. Sec. 7001; or

5 (c) Substitute notice, if the agency demonstrates that the cost 6 of providing notice would exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars, 7 or that the affected class of subject persons to be notified exceeds 8 five hundred thousand, or the agency does not have sufficient contact 9 information. Substitute notice shall consist of all of the following:

10 (i) Email notice when the agency has an email address for the 11 subject persons;

12 (ii) Conspicuous posting of the notice on the agency's web site 13 page, if the agency maintains one; and

(iii) Notification to major statewide media.

15 (((9))) (5) An agency that maintains its own notification 16 procedures as part of an information security policy for the 17 treatment of personal information and is otherwise consistent with 18 the timing requirements of this section is in compliance with the 19 notification requirements of this section if it notifies subject 20 persons in accordance with its policies in the event of a breach of 21 security of the system.

(((10) A covered entity under the federal health insurance 22 23 portability and accountability act of 1996, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1320d et seq., is deemed to have complied with the requirements of this 24 25 section with respect to protected health information if it has complied with section 13402 of the federal health information 26 27 technology for economic and clinical health act, Public Law 111-5 as it existed on July 24, 2015. Covered entities shall notify the 28 attorney general pursuant to subsection (14) of this section in 29 30 compliance with the timeliness of notification requirements of 31 section 13402 of the federal health information technology for economic and clinical health act, Public Law 111-5 as it existed on 32 July 24, 2015, notwithstanding the notification requirement in 33 34 subsection (15) of this section.

35 (11) Any waiver of the provisions of this section is contrary to 36 public policy, and is void and unenforceable.

37 (12) (a) Any individual injured by a violation of this section may 38 institute a civil action to recover damages.

39 (b) Any agency that violates, proposes to violate, or has 40 violated this section may be enjoined.
