1 AN ACT Relating to establishing the domestic violent extremism
2 commission; adding a new section to chapter 43.10 RCW; and providing
3 an expiration date.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.10
6 RCW to read as follows:

7 (1) The domestic violent extremism commission is established
8 within the office of the attorney general for the purpose of 9 establishing a comprehensive public health and community-based
10 framework for responding to domestic violent extremism. It is the 11 intent of this section to build upon the research and findings of the 12 domestic terrorism study assembled by the state attorney general in 13 2022.

14 (2) The commission must consist of the following members:

15 (a) Four legislators, one appointed by each of the two largest 16 caucuses of the senate and one appointed by each of the two largest
17 caucuses of the house of representatives;

18 (b) A representative of the governor's office appointed by the 19 governor;

20 (c) A representative from the attorney general's office;

1 (d) A representative with expertise in public health, appointed
2 by the state attorney general;

3 (e) Six representatives from organizations representing groups
4 protected under RCW 9A.36.080, appointed by the state attorney
5 general, which may include but is not limited to the following:

6 (i) A representative from the black/African American community;

7 (ii) A representative from the Muslim community;

8 (iii) A representative from the Jewish community;

9 (iv) A representative from the Asian or Asian American community;

10 (v) A representative from the Sikh community;

11 (vi) A representative from the Latino/a/x community;

12 (vii) A representative from the LGBTQ community;

13 (ix) A representative from the general immigrant/refugee 14 community; and

15 (x) A representative from the African community;

16 (f) The commission must extend an invitation to participate in 17 the commission to the following:

18 (i) A representative from the federal bureau of investigation;

19 (ii) A representative from the United States department of 20 homeland security; and

21 (iii) A representative from a federally recognized tribe.

22 (3) The commission is encouraged to solicit participation and
23 feedback from nonmember groups and individuals with relevant
24 experience, as needed.

25 (4) The commission shall hold its first meeting before December
26 31, 2023. The commission shall elect a chair from among its members
27 at the first meeting. The election of the chair must be by a majority
28 vote of the commission members who are present at the meeting.

29 (5) Legislative members of the commission are reimbursed for 30 travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120. Nonlegislative
31 members are not entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses if they 32 are elected officials or are participating on behalf of an employer,
33 governmental entity, or other organization. Any reimbursement for 34 other nonlegislative members is subject to reimbursement allowed
35 under chapter 43.03 RCW.

36 (6) The office of the attorney general shall administer and
37 provide staff support to the commission, which shall include
38 arranging meetings and developing meeting agendas.

39 (7) The duties of the commission include, but are not limited to:

1 (a) Identifying community-led and evidence-based solutions to
2 combat disinformation and misinformation, address early signs of
3 radicalization, and develop public health-style responses;

4 (b) Evaluating any future data-tracking recommendations around
5 domestic violent extremism, including how data is collected, what
6 triggers data collection, and how to ensure data is not
7 disproportionately used against black, indigenous, and people of 8 color communities or other communities; and

9 (c) Evaluating current legal tools, both civil and criminal, and
10 making recommendations for potential new legislation and regulations
11 to address domestic violent extremism.

12 (8) To achieve its objectives in subsection (7) of this section,
13 the attorney general, with input and review of the commission, must 14 propose the following in a report, subject to the requirements of 15 subsection (10) of this section:

16 (a) Specific steps to adopt and fund a public health-style and 17 community-based framework for proactively responding to domestic 18 violent extremism; and

19 (b) Specific steps to improve, standardize, and add transparency
20 to data collection and reporting on incidents of domestic violent
21 extremism.

22 (9) To achieve its objectives in subsection (7) of this section,
23 the attorney general must publish a review, with the input and review
24 of the commission, of legal options available under existing law and 25 regulations to address domestic violent extremism and potential new 26 legislation and regulations. The review must be guided by the 27 recommendations in the attorney general's 2022 domestic terrorism
28 study.

29 (10) The commission must hold at least four meetings. The 30 attorney general must publish a report of the commission's 31 recommendations, as set forth in subsections (8) and (9) of this
32 section, with the input and review of the commission, to the governor
33 and the legislature, in compliance with RCW 43.01.036, no later than 34 August 30, 2025.

35 (11) This section expires September 1, 2025.
