
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 4215

State of Washington

66th Legislature

2020 Regular Session

By Representatives Vick, Hoff, and Walsh

1 BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 2 STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

3 THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state the 4 secretary of state shall submit to the qualified voters of the state 5 for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to 6 Article II, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington
7 to read as follows:

8 Article II, section 1. The legislative authority of the state of 9 Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate
10 and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature 11 of the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the 12 power to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the 13 polls, independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at 14 their own option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, 15 section, or part of any bill, act, or law passed by the legislature.

16 (a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the 17 initiative. Every such petition shall include the full text of the 18 measure so proposed. In the case of initiatives to the legislature 19 and initiatives to the people, the number of valid signatures of 20 legal voters required shall be equal to eight percent of the votes
21 cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election

1 preceding the initial filing of the text of the initiative measure
2 with the secretary of state.

3 Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state 4 not less than four months before the election at which they are to be 5 voted upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of 6 the legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at 7 which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote
8 of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not 9 less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he 10 shall certify the results within forty days of the filing. If 11 certification is not complete by the date that the legislature
12 convenes, he shall provisionally certify the measure pending final 13 certification of the measure. Such initiative measures, whether 14 certified or provisionally certified, shall take precedence over all 15 other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and 16 shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by 17 the legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such 18 initiative measures shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be 19 subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred 20 by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the 21 next regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken 22 upon it by the legislature before the end of such regular session, 23 the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or 24 rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The 25 legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition 26 and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in 27 such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state 28 to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular 29 general election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the 30 people the ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express 31 separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, 32 as between either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one 33 and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is 34 for neither, both fail, but in that case the votes on the second 35 issue shall nevertheless be carefully counted and made public. If a 36 majority voting on the first issue is for either, then the measure 37 receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue shall be law.

38 (b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the 39 referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part 40 thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be

1 necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health
2 or safety, support of the state government and its existing public 3 institutions, either by petition signed by the required percentage of 4 the legal voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted:
5 Provided, That the legislature may not order a referendum on any 6 initiative measure enacted by the legislature under the foregoing
7 subsection (a). The number of valid signatures of registered voters 8 required on a petition for referendum of an act of the legislature or 9 any part thereof, shall be equal to or exceeding four percent of the 10 votes cast for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial
11 election preceding the filing of the text of the referendum measure
12 with the secretary of state.

13 (c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect
14 until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it 15 was enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the 16 electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the 17 legislature within a period of two years following such enactment. No 18 act, law, or bill dealing with the same subject as an act, law, or 19 bill rejected by the electors voting thereon may be enacted by the 20 legislature within a period of two years following such rejection:
21 Provided, That any such act, law, or bill may be amended or enacted 22 within (~~two years after such enactment~~) the two-year period at any 23 regular or special session of the legislature by a vote of two-thirds 24 of all the members elected to each house with full compliance with 25 section 12, Article III, of the Washington Constitution, and no 26 (~~amendatory~~) law adopted in accordance with this provision shall be 27 subject to referendum. But such enactment may be amended or repealed 28 at any general regular or special election by direct vote of the 29 people thereon.

30 (d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more
31 items, sections, or parts of any act, law, or bill shall not delay
32 the remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum 33 petitions against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed 34 with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after the 35 final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the 36 measure on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the 37 governor shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the 38 people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the state 39 shall be had at the next succeeding regular general election
40 following the filing of the measure with the secretary of state,

1 except when the legislature shall order a special election. Any 2 measure initiated by the people or referred to the people as herein
3 provided shall take effect and become the law if it is approved by a 4 majority of the votes cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon 5 such question or measure shall equal one-third of the total votes 6 cast at such election and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in 7 operation on and after the thirtieth day after the election at which 8 it is approved. The style of all bills proposed by initiative 9 petition shall be: "Be it enacted by the people of the State of 10 Washington." This section shall not be construed to deprive any 11 member of the legislature of the right to introduce any measure. All 12 such petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall 13 be guided by the general laws in submitting the same to the people 14 until additional legislation shall especially provide therefor. This 15 section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted especially 16 to facilitate its operation.

17 (e) The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all 18 laws or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to 19 the people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so 20 referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the 21 publication to each individual place of residence in the state and 22 shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine 23 necessary to reasonably assure that each voter will have an 24 opportunity to study the measures prior to election.

25 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause 26 notice of this constitutional amendment to be published at least four 27 times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every 28 legal newspaper in the state.
