
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 5770

State of Washington

65th Legislature

2017 Regular Session

By Senate Human Services, Mental Health & Housing (originally sponsored by Senators McCoy, Darneille, Saldaña, and Hunt)

1 AN ACT Relating to transfer of jurisdiction from a tribe in 2 dependency cases involving Indian children; and amending RCW
3 13.38.080.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 13.38.080 and 2011 c 309 s 8 are each amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (1) In any proceeding for the foster care placement of, or 8 termination of parental rights to, an Indian child who is not 9 domiciled or residing within the reservation of the Indian child's 10 tribe, the court shall, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, 11 transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the Indian child's 12 tribe, upon the motion of any of the following persons:

13 (a) Either of the child's parents;

14 (b) The child's Indian custodian;

15 (c) The child's tribe; or

16 (d) The child, if age twelve or older.

17 The transfer shall be subject to declination by the tribe. The tribe 18 shall have seventy-five days to affirmatively respond to a motion or 19 order transferring jurisdiction to the tribal court. A failure of the 20 tribe to respond within the seventy-five day period shall be 21 construed as a declination to accept transfer of the case.

1 (2) If the child's tribe has not formally intervened, the moving
2 party shall serve a copy of the motion and all supporting documents
3 on the tribal court to which the moving party seeks transfer.

4 (3) If either of the Indian child's parents objects to transfer
5 of the proceeding to the Indian child's tribe, the court shall not 6 transfer the proceeding.

7 (4) Following entry of an order transferring jurisdiction to the 8 Indian child's tribe:

9 (a) Upon receipt of an order from a tribal court accepting 10 jurisdiction, the state court shall dismiss the child custody
11 proceeding without prejudice.

12 (b) Pending receipt of such tribal court order, the state court 13 may conduct additional hearings and enter orders which strictly 14 comply with the requirements of the federal Indian child welfare act 15 and this chapter. The state court shall not enter a final order in 16 any child custody proceeding, except an order dismissing the 17 proceeding and returning the Indian child to the care of the parent 18 or Indian custodian from whose care the child was removed, while 19 awaiting receipt of a tribal court order accepting jurisdiction, or 20 in the absence of a tribal court order or other formal written 21 declination of jurisdiction.

22 (c) If the Indian child's tribe declines jurisdiction, the state
23 court shall enter an order vacating the order transferring
24 jurisdiction and proceed with adjudication of the child custody
25 matter in strict compliance with the federal Indian child welfare 26 act, this chapter, and any applicable tribal-state agreement.

27 (5) If a tribal court orders transfer of jurisdiction from the 28 tribe, the state court shall hold a hearing to determine if accepting 29 jurisdiction is consistent with P.L. 95-608, RCW 13.34.240 and 30 13.38.100, civil rule 82.5, and any other applicable state or federal 31 laws. The tribal court shall transfer a copy of the entire court file
32 to the state court for its consideration. If jurisdiction is accepted 33 the state court shall determine whether the child will be treated as 34 dependent under RCW 13.34.030(6).
