21 (3) Unaccompanied access to inmates includes the opportunity to 22 meet and communicate privately and confidentially with individuals 23 regularly, both formally and informally, by telephone, mail, and in 24 person.

25 (4) If the department or a department employee denies access to 26 any premises under the control of the department to the ombuds, or 27 subcontractors or volunteers who are performing ombuds functions or 28 acting under the supervision of the ombuds, the department is liable 29 for a fine of up to one thousand dollars per day of denied access.

30 (5) The ombuds has the right to access, inspect, and copy all

34 department must assist the ombuds in obtaining the necessary releases 35 for those documents which are specifically restricted or privileged 36 for use by the ombuds.

37 (a) When conducting an investigation of potential abuse or

39 than three business days after the ombuds makes a written request for 40 such records.

1 (b) The ombuds must have immediate access, not later than twenty-2 four hours after the ombuds makes such a request, to relevant
3 records, without consent from another party, if the ombuds determines 4 there is probable cause to believe that the health or safety of an 5 inmate is in serious and immediate jeopardy, or in any case of death
6 of an inmate while in department custody.

7 (6) A state or local government agency or entity that has records 8 that are relevant to a complaint or an investigation conducted by the 9 ombuds must provide the ombuds with access to such records.

10 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Correspondence between the office and 11 an inmate is confidential and must be processed as privileged 12 correspondence in the same manner as legal correspondence between 13 inmates and courts, attorneys, or public officials.

14 (2) The office shall establish confidentiality rules and 15 procedures for all information maintained by the office.

16 (3) The office shall preserve the confidentiality of information
17 obtained while providing services, including general information, 18 technical assistance, and investigations, to individuals, including 19 inmates, family members and representatives of inmates, department
20 employees, and others. Confidential information may not be disclosed 21 unless the individual gives informed consent, the disclosure is 22 impliedly authorized in order to carry out ombuds services, or the 23 disclosure is authorized by subsection (4) of this section.

24 (4) To the extent the ombuds reasonably believes necessary, the 25 ombuds:

26 (a) Must reveal information obtained in the course of providing 27 ombuds services to prevent reasonably certain death or substantial 28 bodily harm; and

29 (b) May reveal information obtained in the course of providing 30 ombuds services to prevent the commission of a crime.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A civil action may not be brought 32 against any employee of the office for good faith performance of 33 responsibilities under this chapter.

34 (2) No discriminatory, disciplinary, or retaliatory action may be 35 taken against a department employee, subcontractor, or volunteer, an 36 inmate, or a family member or representative of an inmate for any 37 communication made, or information given or disclosed, to aid the 38 office in carrying out its responsibilities, unless the communication

1 or information is made, given, or disclosed maliciously or without 2 good faith.

3 (3) The department may not hinder the lawful actions of the 4 ombuds or employees of the office, or willfully refuse to comply with 5 lawful demands of the office. If the department or a department 6 employee willfully hinders the lawful actions of the ombuds or 7 willfully refuses to comply with the lawful demands of the ombuds, 8 the department is liable to a fine of up to one thousand dollars per 9 incident of hindrance or noncompliance.

10 (4) This section is not intended to infringe on the rights of an 11 employer to supervise, discipline, or terminate an employee for other 12 reasons.

13 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act
14 constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.
