
SENATE BILL 6687

State of Washington

66th Legislature

2020 Regular Session

By Senator Conway

1 AN ACT Relating to granting interest arbitration to employees of 2 the state parks and recreation commission and the liquor and cannabis
3 board; and amending RCW 41.80.200.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 41.80.200 and 2019 c 233 s 1 are each amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (1) In order to maintain dedicated and uninterrupted services to 8 the supervision of criminal offenders that are in state correctional 9 facilities and on community supervision, it is the legislature's 10 intent to grant certain employees of the department of corrections
11 interest arbitration rights as an alternative means of settling
12 disputes. It is also the legislature's intent to grant interest
13 arbitration to collectively bargained employees of the state parks
14 and recreation commission and the liquor and cannabis board.

15 (2) This section applies (~~only~~) to (~~employees~~):

16 (a) Employees covered by chapter 41.06 RCW working for the 17 department of corrections, except confidential employees as defined
18 in RCW 41.80.005, members of the Washington management service, 19 internal auditors, and nonsupervisory marine department employees;

20 (b) Employees covered under chapter 79A.05 RCW working for the 21 state parks and recreation commission, except confidential employees

1 as defined in RCW 41.80.005, members of the Washington management 2 service, and internal auditors; and

3 (c) Employees covered under chapter 66.08 RCW working for the 4 liquor and cannabis board, except confidential employees as defined 5 in RCW 41.80.005, members of the Washington management service, and 6 internal auditors.

7 (3) Negotiations between the employer and the exclusive
8 bargaining representative of a unit of employees shall be commenced 9 at least five months before submission of the budget to the 10 legislature. If no agreement has been reached sixty days after the 11 commencement of such negotiations then, at any time thereafter, 12 either party may declare that an impasse exists and may submit the 13 dispute to the commission for mediation, with or without the 14 concurrence of the other party. The commission shall appoint a 15 mediator, who shall promptly meet with the representatives of the 16 parties, either jointly or separately, and shall take such other 17 steps as he or she may deem appropriate in order to persuade the 18 parties to resolve their differences and effect an agreement. A 19 mediator, however, does not have a power of compulsion. The mediator 20 may consider only matters that are subject to bargaining under this 21 chapter.

22 (4) If an agreement is not reached following a reasonable period
23 of negotiations and mediation, and the director, upon recommendation 24 of the assigned mediator, finds that the parties remain at impasse, 25 then an arbitrator must be appointed to resolve the dispute. The 26 issues for determination by the arbitrator must be limited to the 27 issues certified by the executive director.

28 (5) Within ten working days after the first Monday in September 29 of every odd-numbered year, the governor or the governor's designee
30 and the bargaining representatives for any bargaining units covered 31 by this section shall attempt to agree on an interest arbitrator to 32 be used if the parties are not successful in negotiating a 33 comprehensive collective bargaining agreement. The parties will 34 select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternatively striking 35 names from a regional list of seven qualified arbitrators provided by 36 the federal mediation and conciliation service.

37 (a) The fees and expenses of the arbitrator, the court reporter,
38 if any, and the cost of the hearing room, if any, will be shared 39 equally between the parties. Each party is responsible for the costs

1 of its attorneys, representatives and witnesses, and all other costs
2 related to the development and presentation of their case.

3 (b) Immediately upon selecting an interest arbitrator, the 4 parties shall cooperate to reserve dates with the arbitrator for a 5 potential hearing between August 1st and September 15th of the 6 following even-numbered year. The parties shall also prepare a 7 schedule of at least five negotiation dates, absent an agreement to 8 the contrary.

9 (c) The parties shall execute a written agreement before December 10 15th of the odd-numbered year setting forth the name of the 11 arbitrator and the dates reserved for bargaining and arbitration.

12 (d) (i) The arbitrator must hold a hearing and provide reasonable 13 notice of the hearing to the parties to the dispute. The hearing must 14 be informal and each party has the opportunity to present evidence 15 and make arguments. The arbitrator may not present the case for a 16 party to the proceedings.

17 (ii) The rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings may 18 be considered, but are not binding, and any oral testimony or 19 documentary evidence or other data deemed relevant by the arbitrator 20 may be received in evidence. A recording of the proceedings must be 21 taken.

22 (iii) The arbitrator may administer oaths, require the attendance
23 of witnesses, and require the production of such books, papers, 24 contracts, agreements, and documents deemed by the arbitrator to be 25 material to a just determination of the issues in dispute. If a 26 person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the arbitrator, or 27 refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation to testify, or a 28 witness, party, or attorney for a party is guilty of contempt while 29 in attendance at a hearing, the arbitrator may invoke the 30 jurisdiction of the superior court in the county where the labor 31 dispute exists, and the court may issue an appropriate order. Any 32 failure to obey the order may be punished by the court as a contempt 33 thereof.

34 (6) The arbitrator may consider only matters that are subject to 35 bargaining under RCW 41.80.020(1), and may not consider those 36 subjects listed under RCW 41.80.020 (2) and (3) and 41.80.040.

37 (a) In making its determination, the arbitrator shall take into 38 consideration the following factors:

1 (i) The financial ability of the (~~department of corrections~~)
2 employer to pay for the compensation and benefit provisions of a 3 collective bargaining agreement;

4 (ii) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer;

5 (iii) Stipulations of the parties;

6 (iv) Comparison of the wages, hours, and conditions of employment 7 of personnel involved in the proceedings with the wages, hours, and 8 conditions of employment of like personnel of like state government
9 employers of similar size in the western United States;

10 (v) The ability of the (~~department of corrections~~) employer to 11 retain employees;

12 (vi) The overall compensation presently received by (~~department~~ 13 ~~of corrections~~) the employees, including direct wage compensation, 14 vacations, holidays, and other paid excused time, pensions, insurance 15 benefits, and all other direct or indirect monetary benefits
16 received;

17 (vii) Changes in any of the factors listed in this subsection 18 during the pendency of the proceedings; and

19 (viii) Such other factors which are normally or traditionally 20 taken into consideration in the determination of matters that are 21 subject to bargaining under RCW 41.80.020(1).

22 (b) The decision of an arbitrator under this section is subject
23 to RCW 41.80.010(3).

24 (7) During the pendency of the proceedings before the arbitrator, 25 existing wages, hours, and other conditions of employment shall not 26 be changed by action of either party without the consent of the other 27 but a party may so consent without prejudice to his or her rights or 28 position under chapter 41.56 RCW.

29 (8)(a) If the representative of either or both the employees and 30 the state refuses to submit to the procedures set forth in 31 subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section, the parties, or the 32 commission on its own motion, may invoke the jurisdiction of the 33 superior court for the county in which the labor dispute exists and 34 the court may issue an appropriate order. A failure to obey the order 35 may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

36 (b) A decision of the arbitrator is final and binding on the 37 parties, and may be enforced at the instance of either party, the 38 arbitrator, or the commission in the superior court for the county 39 where the dispute arose. However, the decision of the arbitrator is 40 not binding on the legislature and, if the legislature does not

1 approve the funds necessary to implement provisions pertaining to the 2 compensation and fringe benefit provision of an interest arbitration 3 award, the provisions are not binding on the state or (~~department of~~ 4 ~~corrections~~) the employer.

5 (9) Subject to the provisions of this section, the parties shall 6 follow the commission's procedures for interest arbitration.
