

SENATE RESOLUTION

8615

By Senators Warnick, Holy, Honeyford, and Nobles

1       WHEREAS, In June of this year, James L. Gaudino will conclude 2 twelve and a half very successful years of service to the state as 3 president of Central Washington University; and

4       WHEREAS, President Gaudino's leadership has been instrumental in 5 overcoming some of the most challenging times of the 129-year history
6 of CWU; and

7       WHEREAS, During the Great Recession President Gaudino's budget
8 management avoided mass layoffs and actually increased financial 9 stability of the university; and

10       WHEREAS, He led the modernization and digitization of 14 business 11 processes, from procurement to human resources, reducing the time and 12 cost of administrative processes; and

13       WHEREAS, His intense focus on creating a welcoming and inclusive
14 campus climate has resulted in CWU being the most diverse public
15 university in the state, and the only university to earn the Higher 16 Education Excellence in Diversity award in six of the past seven 17 years; and

18       WHEREAS, The overhaul of campus technology and data-management 19 systems has given CWU the ability to better inform planning and 20 decisions; and

21       WHEREAS, President Gaudino has modernized budget and management 22 processes, and shifted the planning horizon from one to six years in

1 order to ensure sustainable and accountable university management; 2 and

3 WHEREAS, His modernization of enrollment management allowed CWU
4 to recover from Great Recession enrollment drops and become one of 5 the fastest growing institutions in the country; and

6 WHEREAS, He has expanded educational opportunities by launching 7 online degree programs and establishing instructional sites in 8 Sammamish and at Joint Base Lewis-McChord; and

9 WHEREAS, President Gaudino's insistence on science-informed
10 pandemic strategies and close partnerships with local public health 11 officials created a safe, low-transmission learning environment and 12 has resulted in no serious illnesses to date from COVID;

13 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the 14 Washington State Senate extend to Dr. James L. Gaudino their sincere 15 thanks for his service to the people of Washington and his work to 16 expand educational opportunities for the citizens of our state; and

17 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 18 transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Dr. James L. Gaudino
19 and the Board of Trustees of Central Washington University.
