AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 AN ACT to amend 175.60 (1) (g) and 175.60 (3) (a) of the statutes; relating to:

Current law generally prohibits an individual from carrying a concealed weapon unless the individual has a license to carry a concealed weapon that is issued by the Department of Justice. Under current law, DOJ may not issue a license to an individual who is under the age of 21. This bill lowers the minimum age requirement from 21 to 18.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 175.60 (1) (g) of the statutes is amended to read:
