Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

The bill prohibits the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System from charging resident undergraduate academic fees in the 2021-22 and 2022-23 academic years that are more than the fees charged in the 2020-21 academic year, commonly referred to as a "tuition freeze." The freeze is funded by increasing the appropriation to the UW System for general program operations by $16,800,000 in the fiscal year 2021-22 and by $33,600,000 in the fiscal year 2022-23.

The bill also provides additional funding for special education aid the Department of Public Instruction pays to school districts, independent charter schools, cooperative educational service agencies, and county children with disabilities education boards in the amount of $9,155,000 for the 2021-22 fiscal year and $18,310,000 for the 2022-23 fiscal year, for purposes of maintaining compliance with maintenance of effort requirements of the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act and the federal American Rescue Plan Act.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
