ANDERSON, CONSIDINE, J. ANDERSON, VINING, NEUBAUER, SPIROS, RIEMER, MCGUIRE, PALMERI, HONG, BILLINGS, JACOBSON, SNODGRASS, OHNSTAD and ORTIZ-VELEZ, cosponsored by Senators L. JOHNSON, CARPENTER, AGARD, LARSON, ROYS, SPREITZER and SMITH. Referred to Committee on Rules.

AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 Relating to: recognizing February 2024 as Black History Month.

2 Whereas, Black History Month provides a deliberate opportunity to reflect on 3 the common humanity underlying all people and to raise awareness and foster 4 respect for the heritage and contributions of people of African descent; and

5 Whereas, this year marks over 400 years since the arrival of enslaved Africans 6 in Virginia. The existence of Africans in North America can be traced back to 1525, 7 and through 1866, the Transatlantic Slave Trade is estimated to have ensnared more 8 than 12 million African people, with an estimated 10 million surviving the 9 unconscionable Middle Passage, landing in North America, the Caribbean, and 10 South America; and

11 Whereas, Wisconsin history first references African descendants in a speech
12 given in 1725 by a chief of the Illinois Indians, in which he said, "a negro belonging 13 to Monsieur de Boisbriant" at Green Bay; and 14 Whereas, on February 12, 1926, noted Harvard scholar and historian Dr.

15 Carter G. Woodson founded "Negro History Week," and since then, the United States

1 has recognized first Negro History Week and then Black History Month and 2 celebrated the ethnic and racial diversity that enriches and strengthens our nation; 3 and

4 Whereas, both enslaved and free people of African descent have participated in 5 every aspect of America's effort to secure, protect, and advance the causes of freedom 6 and civil rights and have stories that are an inspiration to all citizens, that reflect 7 the triumph of the human spirit, and that offer hope to everyday people to rise above 8 both prejudice and circumstance and to build lives of dignity; and

9 Whereas, people of African descent or African Americans have made 10 measurable differences in their respective industries, such as:

11 1. Elisterine Clayton — 100-year-old Milwaukee resident who, along with her 12 husband Powell Clayton, was a part of building the historic Halyard Park 13 community. Halyard Park is one of the longest-standing African American middle 14 class neighborhoods within Milwaukee. Elisterine owned and operated a series of 15 grocery stores in underserved communities and ensured that residents had access 16 to healthy food options within their neighborhoods. She was a part of a pioneering 17 group that brought Black-owned banks, medical practices, and businesses to the 18 Bronzeville, Chicago, area.

19 2. Torre Johnson, Sr. — Founder of X-Men United and longtime community
20 and youth advocate. Torre was connected to Jeannetta Robinson and Career Youth 21 Development.

22 3. Gab Taylor — Cofounder of Program the Parks and member of Standing Up
23 for Racial Justice. Gab has held activities and programming for youth in Sherman 24 Park since 2016 and fed hundreds of young people from Sherman Park to Moody 25 Park.

1 4. Paul Higginbotham — The first African American judge to serve on the 2 Wisconsin Court of Appeals. He was appointed to the court by Governor James Doyle 3 in 2003 and subsequently elected to the court in 2005.

4 5. Marcia Anderson — A retired senior officer of the U.S. Army Reserve from 5 Beloit, Wisconsin and the first African American woman to become a major general
6 in the U.S. Army Reserve.

7 6. Alonzo Robinson, Jr. — Wisconsin’s first African American registered 8 architect and the City of Milwaukee’s first Black registered municipal architect. On 9 Tuesday, November 30, 2021, the Milwaukee Fire Department Administration
10 Building was renamed after Alonzo Robinson.

11 7. Dr. William Rogers — A historian and educator, who was an integral part of 12 the formation of the Black Radio Network, an African studies educator, and made 13 significant contributions to the study of Black life, civil rights, and social justice.

14 8. Dr. Shawnee Daniels-Sykes — A professor of theology at Mount Mary 15 University who was the only Black Catholic female health care ethicist in the United 16 States at the time of her passing in October 2022.

17 9. Dr. Jacqueline Mann — Milwaukee Public Schools board clerk and currently 18 the only African American board clerk in Wisconsin; now, therefore, be it

19 Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the Wisconsin 20 Legislature recognizes February 2024 as Black History Month and extends 21 appreciation to the above-named persons for their contributions to the state of 22 Wisconsin, the country, and their fellow citizens.
