AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 Relating to: proclaiming April 28, 2021, as Workers' Memorial Day in Wisconsin.

2 Whereas, Workers' Memorial Day is observed every year on April 28, when 3 events commemorating the day are held across the nation and throughout 4 Wisconsin; and

5 Whereas, April 28 is a day to honor the memory of those workers who have died 6 on the job, to acknowledge the grievous suffering experienced by their families and 7 communities, and to recommit ourselves to the fight for safe and healthy workplaces 8 for all workers; and

9 Whereas, nationwide, every day the families of 14 workers on average are 10 informed that their loved ones have been killed while at work; and

11 Whereas, in 2019 alone, 119 Wisconsin workers died in the workplace; and

12 Whereas, of the 5,333 fatal work injuries nationwide in 2019, the highest 13 concentration occurred in transportation-related occupations with 2,122 fatalities, 14 and in the construction industry with 1,061 fatalities; and
