AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

- 1 Relating to: commending emergency response personnel across the state for their 2 work during the July 2019 severe weather incidents.
- 3 Whereas, severe storms swept across the state in late July 2019, flooding roads, 4 downing trees, and leaving over 273,000 residents without power; and
- 5 Whereas, at least 19 tornadoes touched down in the state and straight-line 6 winds occurred, causing significant damage; and
- 7 Whereas, local fire and police departments, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, 8 the National Guard, utility crews, public works crews, state agency personnel, and 9 volunteers came forward to assist in the recovery; and
- 10 Whereas, members of the Wisconsin Legislature thank state residents who 11 pitched in to support their neighbors and communities; and
- 12 Whereas, members of the Wisconsin Legislature also express their deepest 13 sympathies to those whose property was lost or damaged during the storms; and
- 14 Whereas, the legislature hopes for the state's speedy recovery from the storms;
