In addition, if a teacher has worked as a teacher for at least 10 school years and has obtained a master's degree in a related field, the bill requires a school board to pay the teacher an annual salary that is not less than the base salary for the school year plus $15,000. Finally, if a teacher has worked as a teacher for at least 20 school years and has obtained a master's degree in a related field, the bill requires a school board to pay the teacher an annual salary that is not less than $100,000.
