Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the Joint Legislative Council in the bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Special Committee on State-Tribal Relations.

Current law provides that certain dates must be appropriately observed if they fall on a day when school is held. If a specified date falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the day must be appropriately observed on a school day immediately following or preceding the respective day.

This bill adds Indigenous Peoples' Day to the list of days requiring observance. Under the bill, Indigenous Peoples' Day occurs on the second Monday of each October.

3 SECTION 1. 118.02 (12m) of the statutes is created to read:
4 118.02 (12m) The 2nd Monday in October, Indigenous Peoples' Day.
