Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the state is authorized to operate a state lottery, which includes participation in a multijurisdictional lottery. Under current law, “multijurisdictional” is defined to include any U.S. state or territory, Canada, or any Canadian province. This bill changes the definition of “multijurisdictional,” for the purposes of the state lottery, to include any other country or nation.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
