Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with certain exceptions, a person may not engage in business as, or otherwise act as, a mortgage banker, mortgage broker, or mortgage loan originator unless the person is licensed as such with the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI). A mortgage banker is, with certain exceptions, a person who originates residential mortgage loans (loans) for itself or for another person; sells loans or interests in loans to another person; or services loans or provides escrow services. A mortgage broker is, with certain exceptions, a person who, on behalf of a loan applicant or an investor and for commission or other compensation, finds a loan or negotiates a loan or loan commitment. A mortgage loan originator is, with certain exceptions, an individual who takes a loan application or offers or negotiates terms of a loan for compensation or gain. State and federally chartered financial institutions (depository institutions) are not mortgage bankers or mortgage brokers and are not required to be licensed as such. Beginning on January 1, 2010, provisions of the federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008 were adopted into state law, including provisions requiring that certain state licensing and registration functions be conducted through the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry (NMLSR).

This bill modifies the definitions of mortgage loan originator, mortgage broker, and mortgage banker. For purposes of the definition of mortgage loan originator, the bill specifies circumstances under which an individual is considered to offer or negotiate terms of a loan. Current law includes provisions that create exceptions to the definition of mortgage loan originator and provisions that exempt a mortgage loan originator from regulation. This bill eliminates exceptions to the definition of mortgage loan originator and recreates them as licensing exemptions. The bill also modifies certain of these exemptions and creates new ones, including for certain employees of a government agency, housing finance agency, or bona fide nonprofit organization. Also under the bill, an individual must be licensed as a mortgage loan originator only if the individual regularly engages in business as a mortgage loan originator, with the term “regularly engage” defined in the bill.

The bill recreates the definition of mortgage broker to mean a person who, for compensation or gain or in the expectation of compensation or gain, does any of the following but does not make an underwriting decision or close a loan: 1) assists a person in obtaining or applying to obtain a loan; 2) holds oneself out as being able to assist a person in obtaining or applying to obtain a loan; or 3) engages in table funding. Current law provisions that are exceptions to the definition of mortgage broker and mortgage banker are recreated in the bill as exemptions from regulation and the bill also creates new exemptions, including for a government agency, housing finance agency, or bona fide nonprofit organization or a mortgage banker with limited transactions each year.

Under current law, DFI may not issue a mortgage loan originator license to an applicant with an unpardoned felony conviction within seven years prior to the application or, if the felony involved an act of fraud, dishonesty, breach of trust, or money laundering, at any time.

Under this bill, DFI may consider a pardoned or expunged felony conviction and a pardoned or expunged felony conviction does not automatically disqualify an individual from being issued a mortgage loan originator license.

Under current law, an applicant for a mortgage loan originator license must include in the application the name of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker who will employ the applicant as a mortgage loan originator. A mortgage loan originator may act on behalf of only the mortgage banker or mortgage broker with which that mortgage loan originator's license is associated in DFI's records, and a mortgage loan originator's license may be associated with only one mortgage banker or mortgage broker at a time. This mortgage banker or mortgage broker is responsible for, and must supervise the acts of, the mortgage loan originator with whom it is associated.

This bill allows a licensed mortgage loan originator to associate with (be sponsored by) a depository institution, rather than a mortgage banker or mortgage broker, if the depository institution first registers with DFI. If the depository institution applies to DFI and meets certain requirements, DFI must register the depository institution as a "registered entity" and the depository institution may then sponsor licensed mortgage loan originators under the depository institution's supervision and control. The provisions of current law, discussed above, relating to the relationship between a mortgage banker or mortgage broker and a licensed mortgage loan originator also apply with respect to a registered entity that sponsors a mortgage loan originator. A registered entity must also submit reports of condition to the NMLSR and cooperate with, and provide access to records and documents required by, DFI to carry out examinations of licensed mortgage loan originators sponsored by the registered entity. Certain acts or practices that are prohibited by a mortgage banker or mortgage broker with respect to a mortgage loan originator are also prohibited by a registered entity.

Current law requires each mortgage banker, mortgage broker, and mortgage loan originator to annually submit to the NMLSR a report of condition containing information required by the NMLSR. In addition, each mortgage banker or mortgage broker must annually submit a copy of an audit of the mortgage banker's or mortgage broker's operations during the prior fiscal year. The audit must be conducted by an independent certified public accountant (CPA) in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The financial statements in the audit report must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

SENATE BILL 534

In addition to requiring registered entities to submit to the NMLSR reports of condition, this bill eliminates the requirement that reports of condition be submitted to the NMLSR annually, leaving unspecified the frequency of submissions. The bill also eliminates the annual audit requirement for mortgage brokers. Under the bill, a mortgage broker must instead annually submit reviewed financial statements for the mortgage broker's operations during the prior fiscal year. The reviewed financial statements must include certain materials, including a written statement by an independent CPA attesting that he or she conducted his or her review in accordance with GAAP.

The bill also specifies that principal offices and branch offices of mortgage bankers and mortgage brokers must be located in this state or another state and that a branch office, but not a principal office, may be located in a residence. A mortgage loan originator must be assigned to and work out of a licensed or registered office or branch office of the sponsoring mortgage banker, mortgage broker, or registered entity and the office must be the mortgage loan originator's residence or within 100 miles of this residence. There must be at least one licensed mortgage loan originator assigned to and working out of each branch office of a mortgage broker or of a mortgage banker or registered entity where loans are originated.

The bill also prohibits a mortgage banker, mortgage broker, or mortgage loan originator from using any solicitation or advertisement that: 1) misrepresents that the provider is, or is affiliated with, any governmental entity or other organization; 2) misrepresents that the product is or relates to a government benefit, or is endorsed, sponsored by, or affiliated with any government or government-related program; or 3) does not clearly and conspicuously identify the name of the mortgage broker or mortgage banker or, if a mortgage loan originator is sponsored by a registered entity, the registered entity. The bill also repeals a provision prohibiting an individual engaging solely in loan processor or underwriter activities from representing to the public that the individual can or will perform the activities of a mortgage loan originator.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

18           224.722 Registered entities. (1) A depository institution may apply for 19 registered entity status with the division. The application shall be on forms and in 20 the manner prescribed by the division and the applicant shall pay the fee specified
21 by the division. The application shall be accompanied by a commercial surety bond
22 in the amount of $300,000 that is issued by a surety company authorized to do
23 business in this state and is written on a form that is acceptable to the division.

24           (2) Upon the filing of an application for registered entity status and the 25 payment of the required fee, the division shall make an investigation of the

SENATE BILL 534

1 applicant. If the application is complete, and the division has no concerns regarding
2 the applicant's character, general fitness, or financial responsibility, the division
3 shall register the applicant as a registered entity.

4 (3) Each registered entity shall obtain and maintain a license for each branch
5 office where a mortgage loan originator sponsored by the registered entity engages
6 in business as a mortgage loan originator.

7 (5) A depository institution's registered entity status expires on December 31
8 of each year.

9 (6) A registered entity may apply to renew its registered entity status by timely
10 submitting, on forms and in the manner prescribed by the division, a completed
11 renewal application and all required renewal fees. The division may not renew 12 registered entity status under this section unless the division finds that the 13 registered entity continues to meet the minimum standards for registration under 14 this section.

15 (7) If a registered entity fails to satisfy the minimum standards for renewal of 16 its registration, its registration shall expire.

17 (8) A registered entity shall cooperate with, and provide access to records and 18 documents required by, the division to carry out examinations in accordance with s.
19 224.74 (2) of mortgage loan originators that are sponsored by the registered entity.

20 SECTION 37. 224.725 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

21 224.725 (1) LICENSE REQUIRED. Except as provided in s. ~~224.726~~ sub. (1m), an
22 individual may not regularly engage in the business of a mortgage loan originator
