Referred to Committee on Elections, Election Process Reform and Ethics.

AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 To create section 7 of article III of the constitution; relating to: prohibiting the use
2 of a donation or grant of private resources for purposes of election
3 administration and specifying who may perform tasks related to election
4 administration (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2021 legislature on first consideration, does all of the following:

1. Provides that no state agency or officer or employee in state government and no political subdivision of the state or officer or employee of a political subdivision may apply for or accept any donation or grant of private resources for purposes of election administration.

2. Prohibits the use of a donation or grant of private resources for purposes of election administration.

3. Prohibits any individual other than an election official designated by law from performing any task in election administration.

A constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures and ratification by the people before it can become effective.

5 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

6 SECTION 1. Section 7 of article III of the constitution is created to read:

1 [Article III] Section 7 (1) No state agency or officer or employee in state
 2 government and no political subdivision of the state or officer or employee of a
 3 political subdivision may apply for or accept any donation or grant of private
 4 resources for purposes of election administration, and no donation or grant of private
 5 resources may be used for purposes of election administration.

6 (2) No individual other than an election official designated by law may perform
 7 any task in election administration.

8 SECTION 2. Numbering of new provision. If another constitutional
 9 amendment ratified by the people creates the number of any provision created in this 10 joint resolution, the chief of the legislative reference bureau shall determine the 11 sequencing and the numbering of the provisions whose numbers conflict.

12 Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the 13 legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for three 14 months previous to the time of holding such election.
