

FISCAL NOTE

The fiscal impact, in the form of increased revenues to the proposed Special Purpose Depository Banks Subaccount, is indeterminable.

Supervised institutions pay a charter application fee as well as annual or semi-annual supervisory assessments to the Banking Division. Some institutions also pay for all examination costs. Any increase in revenue depends upon the number of new institutions that may form as a result of this bill. However, that amount is unknown at this time and new fees for this type of institution have not yet been established in Rule.
