SIXTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING
2023 GENERAL SESSION

(a) If a qualified person has cause to believe that financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult has occurred, is occurring or has been attempted, the qualified person shall notify the financial institution of the suspected financial exploitation.

(b) If a financial institution is notified of suspected financial exploitation under subsection (a) of this section or otherwise has cause to believe that financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult has occurred, is occurring or has been attempted, the financial institution shall assess the suspected financial exploitation and, if warranted, submit a report to the department containing the same information under W.S. 35-20-103(b). The financial institution shall submit the report required by this subsection not later than the earlier of:

(i) The date the financial institution completes its assessment of the suspected financial exploitation; or

(ii) Five (5) business days after the date the financial institution is notified of the suspected financial exploitation under subsection (a) of this section or otherwise has cause to believe that the financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult has occurred, is occurring or has been attempted.

(c) A financial institution that submits a report to the department of suspected financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult under subsection (b) of this section is not required to make an additional report of suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation under W.S. 35-20-103 for the same conduct constituting the reported suspected financial exploitation.

(d) Each financial institution shall adopt internal policies, programs, plans or procedures for:

(i) The qualified persons of the financial institution to make the notifications required under subsection (a) of this section; and

(ii) The financial institution to conduct the assessment and submit the report required under subsection (b) of this section.

(e) The policies, programs, plans or procedures adopted under subsection (d) of this section may authorize the financial institution to report the suspected financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult to any appropriate state or federal agency in addition to the department, including any appropriate law enforcement agency.

13-1-703. Notifying third parties of suspected financial exploitation of vulnerable adults.

If a financial institution submits a report of suspected financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult to the department under this article, the financial institution may, at the time the financial institution submits the report, also notify a third party reasonably associated with the vulnerable adult of the suspected financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult, unless the financial institution suspects the third party of financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult.

13-1-704. Temporary hold on transactions.

SIXTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING
2023 GENERAL SESSION

(a) Notwithstanding any other state law, a financial institution:

(i) May place a hold on any transaction that involves an account of a vulnerable adult or that contains the vulnerable adult's assets or property if the financial institution:

(A) Submits a report of suspected financial exploitation of the vulnerable adult to the department as required under this article; and

(B) Has cause to believe the transaction is related to the suspected financial exploitation alleged in the report.

(ii) Shall place a hold on any transaction involving an account of a vulnerable adult if the hold is requested by the department or a law enforcement agency.

(b) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, a hold placed on any transaction under subsection (a) of this section shall not exceed five (5) business days after the date the hold is placed.

(c) A financial institution may extend a hold placed on any transaction under subsection (a) of this section for a period not to exceed thirty (30) business days after the expiration of the period prescribed by subsection (b) of this section if requested by a state or federal agency or a law enforcement agency investigating the suspected financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult. The financial institution may also petition a court to extend a hold placed on any transaction under subsection (a) of this
